

Community Service Activities

Through local and university service activities members can bring about positive changes to their community.

Delta Sigma Pi National Service Initiatives

- Make a Difference Day
- Ronald McDonald House Charities

Service Locations

- Animal shelter
- Church
- City, county, and other government agencies
- Community center
- Fire department
- Food bank
- Healthcare facility
- Homes and shelter (woman, children, and homeless)
- Hospital
- Museum
- Parks and recreation department
- Public library
- School/daycare center
- Senior center
- Zoo

Service Activities

- Adopt-a-grandparent, child, student, pet, etc.
- Letters or telemarketing fundraising event
- Auction
- Blood drive
- Building maintenance or painting
- Clean-up (campus, beach, park, highway, street, etc.)
- Create holiday cards for hospitals, soldiers, etc.
- Donation drive (clothing, food, books, toys, etc.)
- Event concessions
- Event set-up/registration
- Event traffic control
- Flier or poster distribution
- Host a holiday/themed dance or party
- Host a tournament
- Host an awareness seminar
- Make a meal (shelter, Ronald McDonald House)
- Play games or read stories
- Raffle
- Registration and water stations for local races
- Tutoring
- Usher for play or concert
- Yard work/plant trees

Non-Profit Organization Examples

- Alzheimer's Association
- American Cancer Society
- American Heart Association
- American Red Cross
- Big Brothers & Big Sisters
- Cystic Fibrosis Foundation
- D.A.R.E.
- Easter Seals
- Feeding America
- Girl/Boy Scouts
- Goodwill
- Habitat for Humanity
- Junior Achievement
- Leukemia & Lymphoma Society
- Make-A-Wish Foundation
- March of Dimes
- Meals on Wheels
- National MS Society
- Muscular Dystrophy Association
- Salvation Army
- Special Olympics
- Spina Bifida Association
- St. Jude
- United Way
- Veterans of Foreign Wars
- Wounded Warrior Project
- World Wildlife Fund

Helpful Tips

- Plan events and activities that appeal to all chapter members
- Combine service programming with other chapter activities such as professional, fundraising, and social events
- Survey chapter members each semester to find their service programming interests
- Focus on having a variety of events
- Visit the Delta Sigma Pi Community Service page for more details
- Contact Central Office or email the Educational and Leadership Consultants for assistance and support