THE DELTASIG is published four times annually in the months of November, January, March and May. Material intended for publication should reach The Central Office of Delta Sigma Pi, 222 W. Adams St., Chicago, not later than the fifteenth of the month previous to publication.

Delta Sigma Pi was founded November 7, 1907, at New York University School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance to foster the study of business in universities; to encourage scholarships and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; to promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce, and to further a high standard of commercial ethics and culture, and the civic and commercial welfare of the community.

EDITORIAL OFFICE—222 W. Adams Street, Chicago, Illinois.

PUBLICATION OFFICE—111 N. Walnut Street, Champaign, Illinois.

Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Champaign, Illinois, under the Act of August 24, 1912.

The Grand President Speaks

E. L. SCHUJAHN, Psi
Grand President of Delta Sigma Pi

Brother Deltasigs:

A MONTH OR two ago I had the pleasure of visiting our Alpha Chapter, the mother chapter of our fraternity, and to meet some of the brothers who today so ably carry on in New York the professional ideals and work of the fraternity and the traditions of its founders. Well may Alpha Chapter be proud of the organization founded there 23 years ago, with its present 52 active chapters, 17 alumni clubs, and over 7500 members—a fraternity probably not even dreamed of by the founders, Brothers Makay, Moysello, Jacobs, and Tienken, or even by the early members of Alpha. And Alpha today takes almost a motherly interest in the future of Delta Sigma Pi.

The Delta Sigma Pi of the future, say only 9 years hence, in 1940, may well have close to 60 active chapters and a total membership twice as large as it is today. It will be much stronger in its positions as one of the leading professional fraternities of the country.

Through the operation of a national endowment fund, chapters will be assisted in acquiring houses, and in 1940, unless there are unexpected changes in the university structure of the country, most, if not all of our chapters, will be in homes. There may well be twice as many active alumni clubs, and more active alumni clubs, where a traveling brother will find friendship in a strange city, in almost every larger center in the country, and there will most assuredly be an enlarged Central Office staff to serve the enlarged needs of the fraternity at that time.

The individual chapters will be more uniform in their operation, for it is hoped that by 1940 the schools of commerce and business administration throughout the country, with many more years of experimentation, will have standardized to a higher degree than at present the curricula in our field. Our chapters will be primarily professional chapters, with definite professional programs for the discussion of the various phases of the profession of business, but they will also be actively engaged in the campus and social activities characteristic of the American college fraternity. Such chapters will mean much to their members.

This dream of the Delta Sigma Pi of the future is quite possible, if we but carry out the professional ideals in which our fraternity was founded,—if the chapters initiate into our brotherhood only men of scholarship, leadership, and who give promise of future usefulness to the profession of business,—if the chapters today will carry on strong professional programs, mingled with a fair portion of the pleasures that go with college life,—and if the alumni will continue to lend their support, financial and otherwise, to carry on the work of Delta Sigma Pi.

This Delta Sigma Pi of the future is the goal toward which the present national administration is working, and with your 100 per cent fraternal cooperation, there is no reason why it cannot be accomplished in a highly conspicuous manner.

Fraternally yours,

E. L. SCHUJAHN.

The Professional Schools of « « Commerce of 1930 » »

★ Over 87,000 Students Now Registered in 99 Professional Schools of Commerce and Business Administration Throughout the United States and Canada. ★

ONE OF THE most significant phases of the development of university education in the past 15 years has been the increase in the number of professional schools of commerce and business administration throughout the country and the very rapid rate at which the registration has climbed in these the newest of our professional schools. In 1926, and again in 1928, I prepared a survey of the growth of the professional schools of commerce and business administration, together with a statistical chart containing data regarding registration and other factors which was published in the columns of this magazine. This survey met with such universal approval that we plan to bring this statistical chart up to date every two years. Accompanying this article is presented the Delta Sigma Pi survey of universities offering organized courses in commerce and business administration, at the close of the college year ending June, 1930.

No lengthy discourse is to be presented in connection with this chart as there has been no major change in the professional schools of commerce and business administration during the past two or three years. True, the 1930 chart contains 99 universities as against 90 in 1928, but most of these were in existence at that time but failed to supply data.

We still find practically the same differences in administrative setup as follows:

Four-year schools.....	72
Three-year schools.....	3
Two-year schools.....	19
Graduate schools.....	2
Five-year schools.....	3

99

The same group, practically, 19 in number, retain their senior college (two-year) administrative set-up, only one major university, Oklahoma, having changed to a four-year basis during the past two years. Whether a university registers its students on a two-year or a four-year basis is purely

★ By ★

H. G. WRIGHT

Grand Secretary-Treasurer

a matter of local administrative policy. Some deans do not want to be bothered with freshman and sophomore students. On some campuses the two-year school of commerce is simply a compromise that was effected with the college of liberal arts when the professional school of commerce was first inaugurated on that campus. The great majority have all four years under the direct supervision of the dean of the school of commerce and business administration.

The universities operating their school of commerce and business administration on a two-year basis are:

Arkansas
 Baker
 Chicago
 Colorado
 Columbia
 Idaho
 Indiana
 Iowa
 Kansas
 Mercer
 Minnesota
 Missouri
 Montana
 North Dakota
 Northwestern (Evanston Division only)
 Southern Methodist
 Texas
 Washington (St. Louis)
 West Virginia

We still find Dartmouth and Michigan continuing their five-year school, while Wisconsin still has a combination four-year and five-year course as before. Harvard and Stanford continue to be the only strictly graduate schools of business administration, both requiring a bachelor's degree or its equivalent for admission.

The universities having three-year schools of commerce and business administration are:

Georgia
 Ohio Wesleyan
 Washington and Lee

Likewise we still find practically the same group of universities offering courses in late afternoon and evening, the only important addition to this group being St. John's College at Brooklyn, which in the past few years has created a new School of Accounting, Commerce and Finance, and will graduate their first class the coming year. The following 21 universities have organized courses in the evening.

Boston
 Buffalo
 Cincinnati
 Creighton
 Denver
 DePaul
 Duquesne
 Georgetown
 Georgia Tech
 Johns Hopkins
 Marquette
 New York (City)
 New York University
 Northwestern
 Pennsylvania
 Pittsburgh
 St. John's
 St. Louis
 Temple
 Tennessee
 Tulane

Without a single exception this demand for late afternoon and evening classes continues to come from the larger cities of the country. All of these evening divisions offer substantially, if not exactly, the same courses, the same instructors, the same texts, in the evening as are scheduled during the day session, have the same entrance requirements and give the same college credits covering the same work. Obviously, all evening divisions have special students taking work for non-credit. We have not knowingly included any evening division in our survey that is directed by any extension department for non-credit.

Registration More Than Doubled in Ten Years

The following total registration figures for the past 11 college years are very interesting:

Year	Men	Women	Total
1919-1920	32,978	3,149	36,127
1920-1921	43,089	4,204	47,293
1921-1922	47,481	4,110	51,591
1922-1923	51,902	4,254	56,156
1923-1924	55,211	4,560	59,771
1924-1925	56,474	5,328	61,802
1925-1926	60,158	5,664	65,822
1926-1927	64,222	5,980	70,202
1927-1928	65,181	6,216	71,397
1928-1929	70,365	7,235	77,600
1929-1930	78,145	9,654	87,799

Thus we find a total of 87,799 students, men and women, actually registered in the 99 professional schools of commerce and business administration through the United States and Canada. If we make allowance for the pre-commerce students in the 23 universities operating on a two- or three-year basis, there would be approximately an additional 10,000, making a grand total of 97,000 students pursuing professional instruction in the field of commerce and business administration at the present time.

Confusion of Titles Still Exists

There still exist many differences in regard to the names used by these 99 universities in designating their professional schools of commerce and business administration. Thirty-nine different titles are used, and while much of this confusion is the result of some universities using "college," others "department," and still others "schools," it is interesting to note that 21 titles are used only once and 10 are used only twice. In other words, 41 different universities require 31 different titles to designate their schools, while the other 62 universities require only 8 designations and 4 of these 8 are used by 47.

There is no reason why some of the older schools, such as the Wharton School, New York University, Dartmouth, Northwestern, Denver, Harvard, and others, should change the names they have been using for many, many years and which are now well and favorably known throughout the country, but likewise there is no reason why the rest of the universities could not very profitably eliminate much of this confusion by the adoption of at least two or three titles, rather than over 30.

The words "Administration," "Business," and "Commerce," singly or in combination with each other, are used by 64 universities, as follows:

18 College	} of	Business	4
1 Course		Business Administration	24
3 Department		Commerce	27
1 Division		Commerce and Administration	4
41 School		Commerce and Business Administration	5
—			64
64			64

Sixteen others use the word "Commerce" in combination with names other than the foregoing. The use of the word college, course, department, division, or school is naturally due to the differences of local administration, but it seems that these 64 universities that use the words "Administration," "Business," or "Commerce," singly or in combination with each other, could very profitably standardize to the use of this combination "—of Commerce and Business Administration." This change would be quite simple in its adoption. Schools now designated as schools or colleges of commerce would simply add the words "and Business Administration." Others would simply prefix the words "Commerce and" and so on. We certainly don't find this confusion existing in the professional schools of law, dentistry, medicine, and others.

The benefits that would accrue to the professional schools of commerce and business administration themselves, and to their many thousand students, through the greater standardization of both the titles designating these professional schools and the degrees granted by same, which are almost as numerous as the titles, through the elimination of confusion as between themselves, and also by the public in general, would more than compensate for any temporary handicap that any individual university or department might feel they would experience.

It is hoped that there will be some organized effort along these lines during the next few years, and also a high degree of cooperation.

Conclusion

The professional schools of commerce are no longer an experiment, although they are still experimenting, and should continue to do so forever. From the viewpoint of registration, they are surpassed in size only by the colleges of arts and sciences. As to what contribution they make in the future to "the oldest of the arts, the newest of the professions" to quote President Lowell of Harvard University, remains to be seen.

"Silver" » » By Frank B. Cook

★ This interesting article was written by Frank B. Cook, a member of the International Silver Commission and uncle of Keate Cook, of our Board of Directors ★

UPON the premise that the people of the world cannot exist with one-half prosperous and one-half on the verge of starvation, and that there is no such thing as over-production when one-half of the people of the world are in need, a few men met last March, in Salt Lake City, with a sincere wish to suggest, if possible, a remedy for such conditions.

At the meeting referred to a representative was authorized to proceed to Washington, for the purpose of calling the attention of the President and others to these conditions and suggesting a remedy. This was done, with the result that notwithstanding the tariff and naval limitation questions were before Congress, as well as many other important matters, the Senate passed a resolution, which was first approved by the Secretary of State, authorizing the appointment of a sub-committee of the Foreign Relations Committee to examine and study:

(a) "Stipulations relating to commerce in existing treaties of the United States and other governments with the Republic of China."

(b) "Conditions that may affect our commerce and trade with China."

Also, "Said Committee on Foreign Relations shall report to the Senate from time to time facts and conclusions derived from such examinations and studies as will enable the Senate to advise, as in its judgment seems fit and proper, as to the negotiation of commercial treaties with China, or with China and other governments, looking to the amendment or modification of existing treaties or the execution and ratification of additional treaties."

Senator Borah, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, appointed as a sub-committee Senators Pittman, Nevada, chairman; Vandenburg, Michigan; Johnson, California; Swanson, Virginia, and Shipstead, Minnesota.

The first hearing was held at Washington in August. Two witnesses were heard—Dr. Julius Klein, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, and his assistant in charge of Oriental trade. Dr. Klein's testimony was that there are three principal reasons for the falling off of our commerce with China:

(a) The disturbed political conditions existing in that country.

(b) The low prices received for their exports.

(c) The depreciated price of silver.

The testimony of Dr. Klein's assistant was largely of a technical nature, but the conclusion to be drawn was the same.

The result of the Washington meeting was printed and was available at the next hearing of the Committee, held in August, 1930, at San Francisco.

To return to our first statement: The American Board of Foreign Missions state that there are from 6,000 to 10,000 Chinese dying daily from starvation, and that if present conditions are not relieved millions will die within the next eighteen months. Any effort to correct this condition must meet the approval of all Christian people.

The remedy suggested by Hon. Frank J. Cannon, former United States senator from Utah, at the Salt Lake City meeting in March, is quite simple and does not involve the money question as usually understood when questions of silver values are discussed. That is, it does not raise the question of ratio.

The plan is a loan to the Chinese Government of a large amount of silver as a commodity. Probably 500,000,000 ounces, to be repaid in ounces of silver over a long period, probably forty or fifty years, at a low interest rate. This silver would be coined and expended for useful and constructive purposes only under the direction of a joint commission, consisting of perhaps seven Chinese, seven representatives of those countries making the advance, and one other—probably the President of the United States, or one directly representing him.

It should be understood that this plan has not been accepted by the Senate Committee. The committee is endeavoring to determine actual conditions and may or may not suggest a remedy. The plan referred to is one suggestion made.

The result of the proposed plan it is believed will be: First, to immediately relieve to a large extent the present suffering in China by giving its people a chance to earn their bread; and second, to immediately raise the price of silver in the world's markets and thereby increase their ability to buy from us and from other gold using countries.

In as short an analysis as is permitted here it would be impossible to recite the numerous phases related to the subject under discussion; but briefly it may be stated that China has a population of more than 420,000,000 people, that there are more than 900,000,000 of the earth's population who for centuries have been accustomed to look upon silver as a basis of exchange and a measure of value.

Recently, by reason of the drastic fall in the price of this metal in the markets of the world, the result of the British government attempting to put India, with its population of more than 300,000,000 people, on a gold basis, and throwing upon the market millions of ounces of silver, coupled with the unsettled political conditions in China, and the fact that the British and French governments have reduced the amount of silver in their respective subsidiary coins, the price has declined rapidly. This reduced price of silver in turn has materially reduced the ability of the people of the silver using countries to purchase from those countries on a gold basis. The price of silver the past few years has ranged about 60 cents. The present price ranges about 36 cents. It is easy to see that the ability to buy by the silver using countries is reduced when trading with a gold country in the proportion that the present price of silver bears to the price of recent years.

If we assume gold to be worth $20.67 per ounce and assume we must measure the other metal by its relative production, then the annual production of silver the past few years would have been about $329,689,500, and gold about $392,273,000, or 62,583,500 more gold dollars than silver dollars.

The result of this decline in the price of silver is recognized by the economists in this and other countries in the falling price of commodities, reduced wages and unemployment.

Under the date of September 19, 1930, at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Manchester, England, Chamber of Commerce, they addressed the Prime Minister of Great Britain as follows:

(1) "The board of directors of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce are convinced that the present depressed state of British industry is attributable in a very large degree to handicaps and difficulties resulting from monetary policy, national and international.

(2) The restoration of the gold standard and the bringing of the pound sterling to its pre-war level of gold value created numerous difficulties of the gravest character for British industry. It automatically increased the real cost of wages and fixed charges; it likewise increased for the State the real cost of the service of the National Debt, thus adding seriously to the direct and indirect burdens of the producing industries, especially those working mainly for the export trade. It is becoming increasingly evident that there is not, nor is there likely to be, a yearly increase in the production of gold which will be sufficient and adequate to sustain the full volume of world productive capacity and maintain a profitable level of prices for commodities generally.

(3) The gold standard has not operated internationally in the last few years as the industrialist and merchant have always been told, by those who supported it, that it would act. The ordinary business man has been led to suppose that if prices fell too far under the regime of the gold standard the fall would be minimized by the provision of cheaper money, and vice versa.

The present depression is largely due to the persistent fall in prices, which monetary policy has entirely failed to correct. It seems to the board that the world supply of gold is not adequate for the present volume of world productive capacity. Whether this is due to the virtual sterilization of so much of the world's gold in certain countries, or to the check in the annual increase of gold production, is beside the point. The situation is that the national and international monetary position is at the moment one of the greatest barriers to recovery in trade generally and in the cotton trade in particular.

(4) It is the considered opinion of the board that until this difficulty is removed attempts to solve the problem of unemployment are doomed to failure.

(5) The board, therefore, earnestly requests H. M. Government to instruct the Macmillan Committee, which is studying this matter, to report at once as a matter of urgency on their findings. The board further urges H. M. Government to take action on the monetary question without delay, and with the guiding principle that the well being of the British industry is of more vital importance to the people of the country than any financial consideration."

This illustrates that the question is considered of world-wide importance and is not a matter which concerns only the United States.

Statisticians have concluded that the normal increase of the world's commerce is about 3.5% per annum. The present added gold to the world's monetary supply is about 2.2%. The deficiency about 1.3% per annum. These figures sound small, but when contrasted with the total volume of commerce throughout the world this 1.3% is an enormous sum and as values must be measured by the basic money, the result of this deficiency must be, has been and will be a fall in commodity prices.

Only a brief statement of the facts can be given here, and figures are tiresome to read. However, it would not seem that this statement should be concluded without some information regarding present precious metal production in order to refute the general impression that there is a flood of silver.

The ratio of production of silver to gold has been quite uniform. From 1493 to 1923 there was produced 13,215,290,941 ounces of silver, and 924,599,182 ounces of gold. A ratio of less than 13 ounces of silver to each ounce of gold. Of these amounts it is estimated there remains available for money purposes about seven billion ounces of silver and about five hundred million ounces of gold. If all the available silver and all the available gold could be coined at the present United States ratio, that is, gold at $20.67 per ounce and silver at $1.2929 per ounce, there would result less dollars in silver than dollars in gold. In other words, there is not and has not been any flood of silver from production. The depreciated price has come from the demonetization of silver by the various countries. The present world production of silver is about 255,000,000 ounces, of which the United States produces about 60,000,000 ounces, Canada about 20,000,000 ounces and Mexico about 100,000,000 ounces. North and South America produce about 85% of the world's supply. The present production of gold is about 20,000,000 ounces, about one-half of which is produced in South Africa.

The Rand Gold production by recent years has been:

1905.....	4,909,541 ounces
1910.....	7,527,108 ounces
1915.....	9,093,902 ounces
1920.....	8,158,228 ounces
1925.....	9,597,573 ounces
1929.....	10,414,066 ounces

The larger of these mines are attaining great depth with increasing difficulty of working and consequent added cost. A number have ceased operations during the past ten years.

It is estimated by H. A. Kursell, resident engineer in New York City of the American Smelting & Refining Company, that by 1936 a decline of 30% is to be expected, and Sir Robert Kotze, engineer for the South African Government, estimates this decline by 1936 will be 48%.

In 1915 the United States produced 4,823,672 ounces; in 1929, 2,128,027 ounces. Canada produced 1,914,920 ounces in 1929.

The question naturally arises, if gold is to be the sole basis money of the world, where are future supplies to be obtained, as all authorities agree that no new fields are in sight.

It is a significant fact that through all the years of which we have any record, or of which any estimate can be made, the relative production of the two precious metals have remained approximately unaltered.

Professional Interfraternity Conference at Cleveland

★ Twenty-nine member fraternities represented. ★ ★ Most constructive meeting in years. A Pro- ★ fessional Fraternities Handbook authorized.

THE FOURTH annual meeting of the Professional Interfraternity Conference was held at the Hotel Cleveland, Cleveland, Ohio, on November 28-29, 1930, with representatives of 29 fraternities in attendance. This meeting proved to be one of the most successful held since the Conference was established. Previous sessions had been largely devoted to perfecting the organization of the Conference, adopting by-laws, and establishing membership eligibility requirements. At this meeting, definite action was taken toward improving the relationship of the professional fraternity with educational institutions, and more firmly establishing the professional fraternity as an educational adjunct.

The fraternities represented were:

Grand Secretary-Treasurer H. G. Wright was the delegate from Delta Sigma Pi.

The most important work accomplished by the Conference was:

Professional Fraternities Handbook

The Conference unanimously approved the publication of a Professional Fraternities Handbook. This volume is something that many professional fraternities have felt a need for for a long time. The purpose of such a handbook would be to provide detailed information regarding each professional fraternity a member of the Professional Interfraternity Conference, and would be divided into divisions representing the nine different categories, Architecture, Chemistry, Commerce, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, and Pharmacy. Each division or department would be headed with an article prepared by some leading educator in that field covering development of professional education and professional schools in that classification. Various fraternities within each classification would be listed alphabetically, and there would be a complete history of each fraternity, probably in greater detail than that contained in Baird's Manual.

Considerable time would be required to compile such a volume, but it was felt that it would prove unusually valuable to the professional fraternity group. This proposed handbook was suggested and sponsored by Grand Secretary-Treasurer Wright, who was appointed chairman of the committee to edit this volume. Assisting him will be Dr. Harold S. Smith of Psi Omega, Dental; Dr. William A. Mann of Alpha Kappa Kappa, Medicine, and J. D. Sparks of Alpha Kappa Psi, Commerce.

Scholarship

Cognizance was taken of the fact that comradeship and personality in a fraternity are highly desirable qualities but that such qualities should not be allowed to overshadow intellectual endowments, and that a professional fraternity should select only those who show distinct promise in their chosen professions. The Conference recommended that its member fraternities encourage the establishment of scholarships, fellowships, lectureships, and all other intellectual projects which may contribute to the sum total of human knowledge. In emphasizing scholarship the Conference recognized the fact that successful promotion of scholarship activity is more or less an individual group problem. In this assumption it pointed out the necessity for each member fraternity to formulate and support the highest standards of scholarship for its own members.

Local Professional Interfraternity Councils

The Conference recommended that where conditions in a university permit, a local professional interfraternity council be formed consisting of all professional fraternities in the university, such councils to co-operate with the Professional Interfraternity Council in fulfilling its objective, with university officials, and with the member fraternities of each local council.

Classification of Professional Fraternities

Whereas the Conference finds that many professional fraternities are erroneously classified in various universities, it instructed the secretary of the Professional Interfraternity Conference to address the proper officials in universities where member fraternities of the Conference possess chapters, calling attention to the fact that these fraternities are members of the Professional Interfraternity Conference and by virtue of that fact have subscribed and conformed to professional fraternity ideals and objectives. This communication to request the co-operation of university officials in classifying all member fraternities of the Conference as professional fraternities and by so doing clarify the classifications of professional fraternities and thus reduce the misunderstandings which yet exist with respect to their function.

Proselyting

The Conference instructed notice to be served on all member fraternities of the intention of the Conference to write into its laws that any fraternity which recognizes proselyting of a pledge or a member of a fraternity in the same category as itself shall not become a member or be allowed to continue as a member fraternity of the Conference.

Alumni Units

The Conference recommends to its member fraternities that each take action toward

These Two Deltasigs Serve as Deans at Northwestern's School of Commerce

WITH the promotion of James R. Hawkinson, an alumnus of our North Dakota chapter, to the assistant deanship of the Evanston division of the School of Commerce of Northwestern University, two members of Delta Sigma Pi serve as the administrative heads of both of the divisions of the famous Northwestern University School of Commerce, one of the oldest, and second largest professional school of commerce in the United States.

Organized in 1908, Northwestern University's School of Commerce is divided into two important divisions, the Chicago division, offering late afternoon and evening work, has almost 7,000 students, while the Evanston division, offering work only in the junior and senior classes, has some 600 students. Ralph E. Heilman is the dean of the School of Commerce, but with such a large professional school under his direction, the administrative direction of these divisions is in charge of an assistant dean at each division.

E. Coulter Davies

E. Coulter Davies, an alumnus of our Northwestern chapter, has been the assistant dean of the Chicago division since July 1, 1923. Brother Davies has had a very interesting career. Graduating from the Columbus (Ohio) high school in 1906, he attended Ohio State University for one year, and then transferred to Northwestern University for two years. He was special agent and assistant commercial superintendent for the Illinois Tunnel Co., Chicago, from 1910 to 1913. He was associated with the Illinois Bell Telephone Co., then the Chicago Telephone Co., from 1913 to 1919 as statistician and accountant. He was on the staff of Arthur Andersen & Co. and Wolf & Co. from 1919 to 1923.

Brother Davies served Northwestern University School of Commerce

as a lecturer in Accounting from July 1, 1922 to July 1, 1923, when he was appointed assistant dean, in which capacity he has since served. He was made an assistant professor of Accounting in 1924, and an associate professor of Accounting in 1930. He holds the degree of B.S. (Northwestern) and C.P.A. (Illinois). He is a member of the American Institute of Accountants, the American Association of University Instructors in Accounting, and the Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants. His clubs are the University Club of Evanston and the Shawnee Country Club. He is the author of Unit 4 of the Northwestern University Accounting course.

James R. Hawkinson

The many friends of Brother Hawkinson will be pleased to learn of his appointment on July 1, 1930 as assistant dean of the Evanston division of the School of Commerce of Northwestern University.

Brother Hawkinson was born at Parkers Prairie, Minnesota. He graduated, cum laude, 1917, from Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota. He then entered the employ of Procter and Gamble Distributing Co. as clerk in the statistical department at their Minneapolis office, thence in a sales position, and then on to Cincinnati where he served as assistant to the sales manager of the western division. He was later transferred to Seattle, where he served as head salesman for two years, being later promoted to the Wisconsin division as sales supervisor.

In 1924 he decided to enter educational work. He entered the University of North Dakota School of Commerce, where he was initiated as a charter member of our North Dakota chapter. He taught business letter writing there for two years. He then matriculated at Northwestern University in the fall of 1926, studied for his M.B.A. degree, and taught courses in marketing and business correspondence. He received his Master's degree in 1929, and was made assistant professor at that time.

He was appointed assistant dean of the Evanston division of the School of Commerce on July 1, 1930, and in addition to his administrative work he also gives courses in the Marketing department, and does outside consulting work in business letter writing and sales.

He is a member of the Association of American University Professors, and belongs to the University Club of Evanston.

SINCE THE last issue of THE DELTASIG was published, 14 additional members have had their names added to the Roll of Loyalty and are now full-fledged Life Members of Delta Sigma Pi. During this time our Georgetown and Buffalo chapters have joined the ever-increasing roll of chapters represented with Life Members. Of the 52 active chapters in Delta Sigma Pi, 24, or almost half, now have one or more life members.

These Life Memberships are real bargains in alumni dues. One payment, $35, and you are paid up for life! No more bills for national alumni dues as long as you live. Instead, letters of thanks. THE DELTASIG for life. The current membership card mailed you each year. And an engraved Life Membership certificate to hang in your office or home.

There is still a chance to be within the first 100; and think what this will mean five years hence. Thirty-five dollars, and you are paid up for life. Annual dues are $4; all you have to do is to pay approximately nine year's dues in advance and you will be a Life Member of Delta Sigma Pi.

All receipts from the sale of Life Memberships are placed in trust and can never be spent. Only the income from this fund may be spent.

Undergraduates! If you desire to purchase a Life Membership and secure a low number, you can forward your checks now. You will have to continue paying your undergraduate obligations, but when you graduate or withdraw from college, you will then be paid up in full for the rest of your life. The Central Office will be glad to accept installment payments on life memberships, but numbers will not be assigned or certificates issued until the final payment is made.

What chapter will head the league next issue? Obey that impulse and forward your check for $35 to The Central Office today. Alumni who have already paid national dues of $4 for the current year can secure a Life Membership by payment of an additional $31, providing the check reaches The Central Office by March 31, 1931.

Let's have 35 chapters listed in this national ranking in the next issue of The Deltasig.

Delta Sigma Pi Gridiron

★ Stars of 1930 ★

Many members of Delta Sigma Pi on varsity squads this year . . . Several members were outstanding stars in their section of the country.

WHILE NO attempt is going to be made to select an All-Deltasig All-America football team, yet it is interesting to know that over two-score of our undergraduates were members of the varsity football squads of their respective colleges during the 1930 football season. While all of these players did not achieve national fame and glory, many were well known in their own conferences and several were nominated for all-sectional teams, and a few received honorable mention for several All-America teams.

Likewise no attempt is being made in this article to list the name of every member of the fraternity playing football during the past season, but rather just to mention the names of those whose playing ability came to the attention of the Editor.

In the East, our New York and Temple chapters were particularly prominent in the field of football this year. At New York Captain Nemecek, Tanguay, Hugret and Vavra starred during the season, while at Temple in addition to Swede Hansen, one of the highest point scorers in the east for several years, Brothers Anthony Dougal, Chester Zareck and Christian Zahnnow were on the squad.

In the South we find at Louisiana State James Luker on the squad, Carey Spicer at Kentucky and Neal Biggers and Samuel Carter at Ole Miss. In the middle west our Detroit chapter had Robert Parsaea as half-back, Edmund Barbour as quarter-back and White at full-back. Wesley Carter was on the varsity at South Dakota, Richard Honkamp at Marquette, Kenneth Clancy and Gerald

JERRY NEMECEK

Dugan at Creighton, Paul Schneeman and John Wulf at Drake, and Jim O'Connor at DePaul. The far west found Carl Handy, captain of the University of California squad.

Jerry Nemecek All-Eastern End

Brother Nemecek closed his college career as a football player at New York University in a blaze of glory. Captain of the 1930 team, Jerry played his position so well that he was mentioned for the All-America team, and was selected on most all All-Eastern teams as end. His work in nailing receivers on punts, and in breaking through to stop offensive ball carriers behind the line earned him the rating as one of the best defensive ends in the game.

Swede Hansen Stars at Half-back

Brother Hansen had four years of varsity play at Temple, having entered Temple before the freshmen rule was put into effect. All of his years were featured by brilliant playing except his third year, when injuries kept him from the game much of the time.

This last season he staged a real comeback. During his first year he scored 80 points and carried the pigskin 847 yards; the second year he chalked up 66 points and 774 yards. During his third year, when he was injured, he scored only 18 points and gained only 529 yards, but his fourth year he scored 73 points and 786 yards. This made a total of 237 points and 2936 yards gained in 35 games played. His was sixth on the list of high scorers in the east this year.

Jim Tanguay Stars at Half-back

Handsome Jim started his first season as a varsity player under a terrific handicap of unfettered publicity, based upon his showing as a freshman. He played brilliantly during the season, and in the Georgia game, going in during the last quarter, and a marked man, he took charge of the N. Y. U. team, driving it from their own 10 yard line to the Georgia 2 yard line in six plays, throwing passes to Brothers Hugret and Nemecek which Georgia could not stop—but which the whistle did, with the score 7-6 for Georgia and the ball on the two-yard line as the game was called. Against Colgate Jim again took charge in the last quarter and drove through time and time again to score N. Y. U.'s only touchdown against Colgate, the game ending 7-6 for Colgate, his kick for point after touchdown being blocked.

Dick Honkamp Stars at End

At Marquette Dick Honkamp has been on the varsity for three years, winning his letter each season. His regular position is right end although he did play at left end much of the 1930 season. Honkamp was particularly noted for his defensive ability, but he was no slouch when it came to catching passes. Last year Marquette boasted one of the best defensive teams in the country, having only 7 points scored against them in 9 games, and no small amount of credit for this record is due to Dick's efforts at end.

Joe Hugret of N. Y. U. another Good End

This seems to be the year for good ends in Delta Sigma Pi. At N.Y.U.

Joe Hugret played his first year on the varsity, and displayed unusual ability in catching passes and folding over the opponents' line.

Ernest Vavra Gains Fame as Tackle

Brother Vavra, starting the season as a reserve tackle, played for N.Y.U. against Fordham in his first major game. Thereafter his work against Carnegie Tech, Georgia, Georgetown, Rutgers and Colgate was of such calibre that his place as a regular was secure. After the Carnegie Tech game, Knute Rockne, in his weekly broadcast, mentioned Ernie as one of the outstanding tackles in the country.

the formation of alumni clubs in cities where sufficient alumni members are located to make them feasible, such alumni units to be an integral part of the fraternity and possess participating rights in all fraternity activities. It was the opinion of the Conference that a greater participation of the alumni members of professional fraternities in the activities of their fraternities would increase the educational, material, and cultural worth of the professional fraternity and enable it to prove of greater benefit to its members.

Several committees were appointed to handle various matters that will come up for attention during the year. The following were elected as officers for 1931:

President, Dr. R. C. Williams (Theta Kappa Psi, medical).

Vice-president, Jamison Vawter (Theta Tau, engineering).

Secretary-Treasurer, J. D. Sparks (Alpha Kappa Psi, commerce).

Members of executive committee, foregoing officers and: Jarvis Butler, (Sigma Nu Phi, law); Dr. Alfred P. Lee, (Psi Omega, dental).

BUFFALO

By D. A. FULLER, Secretary.

The name of Buffalo is new to this issue of THE DELTASIG but now that we have a petitioning group of alumni awaiting the grant of a club charter, you will see our name frequently appearing.

Although the idea of an alumni club has existed in Buffalo for some time, a definite organization was not decided upon until the dinner meeting held February 10, 1931.

The present officers are Carl Guenther (AK) president, Howard Weil (AK) vice-president, Denton A. Fuller Jr. (AU) secretary, and Ronald E. Daniels (AK) treasurer.

Luncheons will be held every Thursday 12 o'clock noon at Gandy's located at 199 Delaware Avenue.

Of special interest to alumni members is the invitation of the Alpha Kappa Chapter to attend their formal dinner-dance to be held on March 17.

We in Buffalo at this time extend to any Deltasig the cordial invitation of meeting with us when he has occasion to be in western New York.

MILWAUKEE

By L. J. BIEBEL, Correspondent.

A large number of the members of the Milwaukee Alumni Club attended the Marquette prom which was held Friday, February 13, and they all had a good time dancing to the music of Coon Sanders' orchestra, which was imported from Chicago for the occasion. Much of the success of this year's prom can be laid to the tireless efforts of Brother Charles T. Cobeen, who, in the capacity of secretary of the Marquette Union, directs the prom activities each year.

The monthly meetings of the Milwaukee Alumni Club are being well attended. To date we haven't offered any attendance prizes, yet we have had an increased attendance at each succeeding meeting this year. We are especially pleased to have so many Beta and Psi men at our meetings, and they are to be commended on the fine spirit which they are showing.

Our bowling parties, which are being held every other Sunday during January, February, and March, are going over in great style. The way some of the boys are lining up strikes, one after another, it wouldn't be at all surprising to have one or more roll a 300 score before the season closes. Although Brother Bert C. Brumm classes himself as a rookie he has been rolling 200 scores with the nonchalance of an old veteran. Door prizes are given at each party.

We are already beginning to make our plans for the biggest event on Delta Chapter's social calendar, the annual Founders' Day banquet. As has been customary in the past, Founder's Day will be celebrated on the second Saturday in May. We intend to make this year's Founders' Day the biggest in the history of Delta Chapter and we cordially invite Deltasigs everywhere to be with us on Saturday, May 9, to help us celebrate.

DEATHS

JOHN CARLETON JONES, Alpha Beta 8
Born July 30, 1856
Initiated March 24, 1923
Died April 22, 1930

Dr. John Carleton Jones, an honorary charter member of our Missouri chapter, president emeritus of the University of Missouri, died April 22, 1930, at Daytona Beach, Florida.

He was born at Sharpsburg, Kentucky, the son of Daniel R. and Margaret Comingo Jones. He was educated at Westminster College, Fulton, Missouri, receiving the B.A. degree in 1879. He was awarded the degree of M.A. and Ph.D. by Johns Hopkins University. He later studied at the universities of Leipsig and Munich. After teaching Latin for a short time at Westminster College, he began in 1883 his long term of service at the University of Missouri as an assistant professor of the classical languages. After a period of service as professor of Latin, he became dean of the College of Arts and Sciences in 1900 and at different times was acting president and vice-president of the institution. He was elected president in 1922 and the next year made president emeritus. He had been connected with the university forty-three years.

He was a member of a number of learned societies. He received the honorary degree of LL.D. from Washington University, St. Louis, and the University of Missouri. He belonged to the Presbyterian church and the Masonic order.

He was the author of a number of articles on educational topics and of a book entitled "Does College Education Pay?"

HORACE F. CLARK, Psi 72

Born November 10, 1886
Initiated March 23, 1924
Died January 4, 1931

Horace F. Clark, Wisconsin, a national authority and writer on building and loan associations, met with a tragic death on Sunday, January 4, 1931, when the airplane in which he was returning from Shreveport, La., ran into a heavy fog, and in attempting to make an emergency landing, the plane crashed into a tree, resulting in the instant death of Brother Clark and the pilot.

Brother Clark was president of the United Guaranty Securities Company of Dallas, Texas, a holding company for several building and loan and homestead companies in Texas. He had chartered this plane from a Dallas concern to fly to Shreveport on Saturday, January 3, to address an association that evening. In order to be back in Dallas early Sunday, the plane took off from Shreveport at 3:30 a. m. after receiving a telegram from Dallas indicating the weather to be satisfactory. However, an impenetrable fog was encountered, the plane left its course 30 miles in attempting to make an emergency landing, and flying so near the ground struck a tree, resulting in the destruction of the plane and instant death to the occupants.

It was only four weeks previous that Brother Clark had journeyed to Waco, Texas, to participate in the installation of our Baylor chapter. He spoke at the banquet following the installation and is well remembered by the brothers he met there. Initiated by our Wisconsin chapter, he had displayed an active interest in fraternity affairs for many years. Until locating in Dallas a year ago, he had been situated at Kansas City, where he was educational director of the American Building and Loan Institute. He had written several books on this subject, which are considered standard texts in their field.

His body was sent to Dover, Delaware, for interment.

ALPHA CHAPTER » » » » « « « « « NEW YORK

By WILLIAM J. RILEY, Correspondent.

The new semester is well under way and Alpha is accelerating the chapter activities which were originally started at the beginning of the school year. Scholastic and fraternal requirements were maintained by both brothers and pledges, no one having succumbed to intensive examinations.

The alumni-athletic Beefsteak Party was held on February 9, in Greenwich Village. As usual this annual event, under the auspices of the alumni, was well attended. Brother Alex. Makay officiated as toastmaster. Upon the early adjournment about 45 brothers came over to the house to participate in the baptismal ceremony of our neophytes.

February 9 also marked the beginning of another hell week. The highly organized program of events, including a play given entirely under goat direction, surpassed by far hell weeks of other initiations. Alpha is certain that it has found some excellent material in these new men and we are sure that they will endeavor to carry out the aims and purposes of Delta Sigma Pi.

The new brothers are: George F. Taylor Jr., Somerville, New Jersey; Milam F. Spellmeyer, East Orange, New Jersey; Kenneth H. C. Steffens, New York, New York; Charles A. Wagenseil, Richmond Hill, New York; George H. Hennessey, Waterbury, Conn.

The winter formal held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Ritz Carlton Hotel, February 20, was without qualification the most enjoyable event in the chapter's history. Both the alumni and faculty members turned out in unprecedented numbers. The occasion was comparable to an annual class reunion and many an old Deltasig was pleased to meet brothers of his undergraduate days. The prevailing setting and fraternal atmosphere of the dance will long linger in our memories. Joe Kennedy and his committee, consisting of Dick Abbe and Jack Picknally, worked diligently in planning this most important of Alpha's social activities. The chapter is greatly indebted to them for their efforts. One hundred twenty-seven couples were in attendance.

Our most recent smoker was held January 12, at which time we acted as host to a petitioning group. As guest speaker we were fortunate in having Professor Louis Sprigg of the Economics department at New York University. Following his address, the Detroit convention film was shown, special attention being focused on that portion of the film showing the initiation of our southern brothers into the order of the Yellow Dog. Both Brother Fackler, Epsilon, and Brother Hopper, Alpha, were present at this smoker.

Grand President Schujahn honored us during January by a visit to our chapter house. Due to the uncertainty of the exact date of his visit only a small dinner party was arranged. Brothers Schujahn, McGoldrick, Milener, Zimmer, Eckdahl, and Head Master Kilian attended. Following this we had a very informal and general discussion of our chapter problems and their solutions. All of the brothers present were glad to meet our Grand President, and to learn further, directly from him, of our national policies, and of our expansion and development. The courtesy of his visit is greatly appreciated.

In the way of athletic activities Alpha continues with considerable strength. In addition to representatives on the varsity basketball team we now find Jim Tanguay in the ring. As a boxer he has both skill and power. History repeats itself and accordingly Alpha has thus far emerged victoriously from two of the eight scheduled games of the interfraternity basketball tournament. Apparently the team is as strong as the championship team of 1930, and, with the new Deltasig uniforms, they should again win the trophy.

Striving hard for that control of campus activities, which Beta Theta chapter can fortunately speak of, we managed to dominate Onimod Club's B.V.D. dance which was held February 5. Hal Cahill was chairman of this party and Alpha's "football quartet" was the feature of the evening. The Newman Club formal dance was also ably handled by an all-Deltasis committee. Bill Corbett, its president, can well be proud of the work they accomplished.

Violet Skull, composed of the eight major fraternities on the Washington Square campus, now functions as the Inter-fraternity council. John Fagan, as president, has sent the Skull off to a good start with two well attended smokers, and the interfraternity basketball tournament well under way. Harry Kendall, as co-chairman, with a Theta Chi and an Alpha Kappa Psi, of the interfraternity formal reception, report plans, rapidly nearing completion, for a great prom in April, probably at the Ritz Carlton Hotel.

At the first meeting of the new semester a practical inventory of the chapter activities was given in the Head Master's report. At present Alpha consists of 31 actives and 2 pledges, having lost 5 men through graduation and calls to business duties out of town. Our losses include Bill Corbett, Lou Jones, Ed Norton, Connie Sheridan, and Jim Stevens. While with us they proved valuable assets to the fraternity and we wish them infinite success in their individual endeavors as men of commerce. These changes in our roster necessitated a special election of the offices vacated which resulted in the following:

Chancellor	.	Harold J. Cahill
Scribe	.	Charles Collins
Senior Guide	.	Paul Cunningham

As usual the Alpha-News has been issued regularly and its circulation is constantly increasing. Judging from the comments received from some of the Grand Chapter officers, alumni, and other chapter editors, the editorial staff has been successful in publishing a really interesting paper. We appreciate receiving the other chapter papers sent us and we wish to remain on their mailing list.

Thus the beginning of the final half of the school year finds Alpha busily engaged in fraternal activities and earnestly endeavoring to round out the school year in accordance with the internal development as a chapter which was so thoroughly promulgated at the Detroit Convention. As the Mother chapter we are striving hard to work as a successful unit.

BETA CHAPTER " " " "

By WILLIAM REA, Scribe.

Brothers in other chapters will be sorry to hear that our Beta basketball team doubled the score of Alpha Kappa Psi's basketekers here in Chicago in a friendly interfraternity match January 31. The game, a cleanly-contested one, was followed by a very enjoyable dance held jointly by the two fraternities at Alpha Kappa Psi house. Exactly thirty couples attended from each group, and all will remember the affair as a pleasant contrast to the usual aftermath of a keenly fought game where rivalry runs high.

To Randolph K. Vinson, captain of our basketball team, goes the credit of having brought the players through a season defeatless to date. And to Stephen Janick, Head Master of the chapter, and Harold Terwell, Master of Festivities, go the laurels for having arranged the friendly game and dance with A K Psi.

At time of writing, we are assailing the work of a new semester. We are glad to report that several Beta men who had temporarily disappeared from our active ranks are now back in school with their shoulders to the wheel. Including the thirteen men initiated Saturday, February 21, our chapter's total of actives is about fifty. Another encouraging note is the way our house has been pressed for space; for the first time in months we have a waiting list of neophytes who would like to live at "42." We began the school year by worrying that the business recession might create a poor year for the chapter, but the clouds have cleared and we are marching ahead with the rest of the fraternity.

At the close of an entertaining (for us) hell week, we initiated the following men into Delta Sigma Pi, Saturday, February 21: Clifford H. Rasmussen, John W. Torri-son, Marvin O. Kallerud, Franklin R. Lacy Jr., Walter H. Lorenz, Robert W. Worden, Dale J. Hagenagh, Sidney W. Jaunsen, Paul Sherman, Harry E. Rapp Jr., Samuel T. Parisi, Samuel L. Anderson Jr., and Warren A. Marler. It was a pleasure to be called "Mr." by these men, but it certainly is a greater pleasure now to call them brothers and to welcome them into our ranks.

In saying Au Revoir till the next issue, may we invite you not to forget us the next time you are in Chicago. Our chapter house is just ten or fifteen minutes from the heart of Chicago's loop, so visit us when business or pleasure brings you to the city.

GAMMA CHAPTER » » »

« « « « « « BOSTON

By FREDERICK W. ATHERTON, Head Master.

Gamma Chapter starts the second semester with the added strength of five new brothers, the survivors of a rigorous December initiation. The new men are as follows: Kendall E. Lawson, Florian H. McCall, Joseph C. O'Leary, Edward H. Mara, Karl R. Kunze.

The first semester was one of renewed activity among the alumni, and the undergraduate members responded to this encouragement by redoubling their efforts to make Delta Sigma Pi supreme at Boston University. The alumni reunion, which was staged on Founders' Day, was a particularly well attended and successful function. Old grads from far and near came flocking in to Boston in response to an invitation to "relive the escapades of their college days." The festivities were climaxed by the presentation of a new Deltasig badge to Brother Edgar B. Pitts, in recognition of the fine service he has rendered in constantly supporting Gamma Chapter.

Three smokers have been held since our last report, at which the following men gave interesting talks: Brother William G. Hoffman, professor of Public Speaking; Mr. Walter F. Leary, partner in Gurnett and Company, and Dr. E. H. Cahoon, Superintendent, Medfield State Hospital.

The social program has consisted of two informal house dances, at which Brothers Ned Mara and Karl Kunze demonstrated their ability as musicians par excellence.

Another contribution by Gamma Chapter to the ranks of Beta Gamma Sigma was recorded when Franklin T. Chace was elected to the society last November. The preliminary reports of the first semester indicate that Gamma's scholastic record may be even better than that of last year.

Boston was honored by a short visit from Grand President E. L. Schujahn in January. Brother Schujahn was tendered a dinner by the alumni of Gamma at the University Club, followed by an informal smoker at the chapter house. We hope that Brother Schujahn will be a frequent visitor.

May we again remind visiting Deltasigs that alumni luncheons are held every Thursday, in the main dining room of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, and that we always maintain open house at 121 Thorndike Street, Brookline.

DELTA CHAPTER » » » »

« « « « « « MARQUETTE

By ARTHUR C. KELLER, Correspondent.

Things have been rather quiet on the Delta front since the last issue of THE DELTASIG. Little action was noted along social, athletic, or rushing lines, desultory fring occurred, however, around the scholarship salient where final examinations offered some stiff opposition. The exam side, aided and abetted by some strategic maneuvering by the dean's executive staff, generally held the upper hand although such veteran campaigners as Brothers Moen, Heidgen, Bohl-ling, Roemer, and Monroe succeeded in inflicting some rather serious damage upon the exam defenses. No fatalities were sustained.

In a recent survey made by the Interfraternity council to determine the winner of the silver scholarship plaque awarded each semester to the fraternity having the highest scholarship average, a list of the ten smartest Greeks on the campus was compiled. William E. Monroe, one of our leading scholarship gunners, placed Delta Sigma Pi in the honorary ranking by earning an average of 2.765 grade points out of a possible perfect average of 3.000. Bill is just a sophomore, but if he keeps up the good work, they'll have a tough time keeping him out of Beta Gamma Sigma. We expect big things from him before he shelves the books and finishes his college training.

Delta at present has only one pledge, but we have about ten men all set to assume the obligations of the crown and delta just as soon as the sanction of the university has been obtained. A large number of the freshman were entertained at the smokers of last semester and we feel that having met a large percentage of the class we have picked the best of the eligible men. Walter E. Schlise was the only member the chapter lost through graduation at the end of the semester. Doc Schlise was our able basketball captain and player and he will be severely missed by the cage team. In spite of the scarcity of work, Doc went right out and got himself a job as a coal man—on the selling end, not delivering.

The bowling team finished its season January 23, and although its pin-smashing didn't establish any records, it did succeed in rolling into third place with a record of 21 wins and 6 losses. The Deltasigs were the only ones who won more than one game from the league-leading Phi Chis, but some of the weaker teams caught them at off moments and knocked them out of the title. Ivan Carlson lead the team with an average of 170 while Bill Schumacher was next with 162 followed by Art Keller 157, Gene Roemer 143, and Dick Honkamp 142.

Friday the 13th held few fears for a large number of Deltasigs who danced to the regal strains of Coon-Sanders Original Nighthawks at Marquette's Prom of Golden Memories commemorating the institution's fiftieth year of activity. Just about everybody in the chapter who could buy, borrow, or steal a tux was there and all reported a royal good time. Brother Kalitowski served as chairman of the prom favor committee.

Again the age-old housing problem confronts the chapter. Just as we were congratulating ourselves that it had been solved, the university officials passed a rule barring the residence of alumni at fraternity houses. Inasmuch as a large number of the members are Milwaukee men living at home, we are dependent on several alumni to make the house a paying proposition. Although the ruling is not being enforced this semester, the situation will become serious next year when beside the loss of the alumni, five actives now living at the house will have graduated. We hope that some adequate solution will be found by that time.

EPSILON CHAPTER » » » « « « « « « IOWA

By HARRY F. JEPSON, Correspondent.

With the initiation of its ninth faculty member, and its annual pre-Christmas stag party holding the spotlight of the scheduled entertainment for the night of December 17, Epsilon Chapter completed its social affairs for the semester in a big way.

Walter F. Crowder is the latest addition to Epsilon's faculty members, and a real addition at that. Mr. Crowder is an assistant instructor in Business Statistics, and is associated with the Bureau of Business Research. The chapter feels that its new member is a brother of whom the fraternity can be justly proud.

Following the initiation, and the traditional banquet that preceded the ceremony, came the "renowned" stag party of the season. Stag parties aren't so frequent at Iowa as the other kinds that you've probably read about in the March issue of the College Humor, but when we do have 'em we throw 'em in a fitting way.

The daily routine of classes preceding final exams was broken by the appearance of the "King of Jazz" and his famous band at the annual Military Ball, January 16. Those fellows who were fortunate enough to secure tickets for the affair reported that Paul was even better than O. K.

The following day Gig Wright paid us a visit after a short sojourn at Alpha Iota Chapter. Gig's stay was brief; he left early in the evening for Vermilion, South Dakota.

At our mid-year election held the 26th of January, Howard Young was elected to succeed Kenneth Fellows as Head Master. Other officers elected at this time were:

Senior Warden . Frank Wettstein
Junior Warden . Domenie J. Ariagno
Senior Guide . C. Blaine DeYarman
Junior Guide . John J. Van Lent
Scribe Paul E. Campbell
Chancellor . . Charles G. White
Rushing Captain . Harold W. Puls

The customary, undesirable, final exams didn't seem to phase the boys as our winter formal on the eve of January 31 turned out to be a big success. When a group of loyal "Iowans" wiggle themselves into tuxedos after having undergone a week of "cramming" and report a good time, you can assure yourself that it must have been "some" party.

Our cage team is still going great although it suffered defeat at the hands of the A. T. O. boys in a recent tussle. Chances to cop the intramural basketball trophy are as good as ever, and we're confident that the boys are going to come through and give us another cup to add to our trophy case.

ZETA CHAPTER » » » » « « « « NORTHWESTERN

By A. GORDON THOMPSON, Correspondent.

Zeta's first rushing smoker of the new year was a "howling" success. About fifty actives, pledges, and rushees were present. Dean Hawkinson and Professor Dougall spoke about the importance of the professional fraternity to the School of Commerce. Both speakers pointed out interesting facts regarding Zeta Chapter, and its relation to the school at large. Professor Duncan then spoke, telling us about the organization of Alpha Rho Chapter at the University of Colorado, in which he took part. Professor Duncan sends his greetings to the brothers at the University of Colorado. At the close of the meeting, doughnuts and cider were served. Before the meeting broke up, however, we were very greatly surprised to find our faculty adviser, Professor Dougall, being invited to the police station by a burly representative of the law. Amid the cheers and jeers of the brothers, he accompanied the policeman to the door, where he found the arrest to be a joke. Professor Dougall's courageous conduct in the face of such extreme adversity deserves the commendation of the national office.

Election of officers for the second semester took place on January 12. The following officers were elected:

Head Master Paul Ertel
Senior Warden . Wayne Browning
Junior Warden . Leslie Moksnes
Treasurer Max Lewis
Scribe Maurice Stromwell
Correspondent . A. Gordon Thompson
Master of Festivities . William Mehl

Two meetings, a luncheon and a smoker, have already been held this semester. Plans are being made for another smoker to be held sometime during the next week.

The officers are also planning a dinner for all alumni of Zeta Chapter, a smoker with Beta Chapter, and several other interesting events for the near future.

Zeta Chapter expects to have a 100 per cent turnout for the all-Chicago Deltasig formal, to be held at the Stevens Hotel on April 25.

ETA CHAPTER » » » » « « « « KENTUCKY

By F. EUGENE WILSON, Correspondent.

The first semester of the college year being over, Eta started the new term with much enthusiasm and zest. It was a successful year for Eta. Many programs of interest were given at the luncheon meetings. Something new in the way of redecorating the Delta Sigma Pi clubroom was financed by the selling of tags. Every student aided in the plea for funds which was carried on by the neophytes. The clubroom has become very popular in the College of Commerce.

At the regular meeting December 17, 1930, the election of officers was held. The new officers are:

Head Master B. C. Stapleton
Scribe J. W. McRoberts
Treasurer W. H. Young
Senior Warden . . . J. M. Heiber
Junior Warden . . . J. M. Jones
Historian M. L. Foster
Keeper of the Parchment Roll . M. A. Longmire

Former Head Master Austin Gresham receives and deserves the sincere gratitude of the chapter for his excellent services rendered while he was in office. It was through his untiring efforts and interest that we look back upon such a successful year.

At the regular luncheon February 12, 1931, Mr. W. C. McCarty, Secretary of the Lexington Y. M. C. A., gave a very interesting talk. His subject was "The Economic and Political Situation in India." Mr. McCarty, having lived in India for some years, was able to draw a very vivid picture of the conditions in that country, where turmoil and strife seems to be the only life that people can lead.

Eta Chapter is looking forward to a smoker in the near future. These smokers are attended by all the members of Delta Sigma Pi and the students of the College of Commerce. This is one of the means of looking over the prospective neophytes.

THETA CHAPTER » » » » « « « « « « DETROIT

By GEORGE E. RAKOVAN, Correspondent.

The new year found Theta stepping around in a lively fashion. Grass will never have a chance to grow under the feet of the Detroit Deltasigs.

January started off with hell week. The neophytes had so many duties to perform that a great sigh of relief was heard the moment the initiation had been completed.

The new brothers the chapter has honored with membership are: Dr. Henry J. Wilmes, Redmond Carey, Albert Carr, Caryl LaChance, Clarence Rickenback, Clarence Ruffing, Norvell Sullivan, Fred West.

Dr. Wilmes, a faculty member, is professor of Economics in the College of Commerce and Finance. He has received several degrees from German universities, has travelled extensively, and is an authority in his chosen work.

The initiation and banquet was held on January 18, in the Hotel Fort Shelby. The ceremony was most impressive, the ritual team under the direction of Wendel V. Hall performing its work admirable. The speaker of the evening was E. St. Elmo Lewis, marketing and merchandising counsel, a member of Alpha Chapter, and a nationally known figure in advertising circles.

Other speakers on the program were: Dr. Henry J. Wilmes, Dean William B. O'Regan, Professor Alfred N. Slaggert, Coach Arthur B. Boeringer, Judge John J. Maher, and Rudolph C. Schmidt, former Grand President of Delta Sigma Pi.

All of the speakers are members of the fraternity. The feature of the banquet was, of course, the election of the Keeper of the Parchment Roll. This important office will be capably filled by Caryl J. La Chance.

In scholarship the gong has been rung with a lot of vigor. In the examinations for the past semester averages of 90 or 95 were not uncommon. The average for the entire chapter is not available as yet, but from all reports 88 should be a safe estimate.

Fred Goodrich, Ed Chapp, Louis White, and Lester Butcher are regulars on the basketball squad, and Captain Archie Yeager, Bob Battat and Redmond Carey are holding forth on the cinder path. Yeager and his mates demonstrated their ability in the West Virginia university relays, and will also enter the carnival at Notre Dame.

Theta celebrated its birthday party with a bust at the Scottish Rite home in Windsor, Ontario. (Did we hear an "Oh Yeah"?) The affair was staged by the Detroit Alumni Club with Esau Thistle whirling the baton. Brother Thistle has directed several unusually successful programs and is deserving of a lot of praise.

The third of a series of professional smokers was held on February 12 at Webster Hall. The smoker was open to guests, and a number of promising prospects were presented. Dr. Henry J. Willmes was the speaker at the smoker. He chose as his subject, "Causes of the Present Economic Depression."

These smokers have met with the hearty cooperation of the members, and the plan will be continued.

On February 1 the Deltasigs assisted with the entertainment of the national officers of Phi Gamma Nu, commerce sorority. Zeta Chapter of the sorority was installed at the University of Detroit.

IOTA CHAPTER » » » »

« « « « « « KANSAS

By ELLSWORTH SCHOENI, Correspondent.

Iota Chapter was honored by a visit from Brother Wright of the Central Office. In an after-dinner speech of fraternity matters, both local and national, many valuable suggestions were given, by which the chapter hopes to profit in the future. Guests of the day were Dean Frank T. Stockton and Professor Clarence McGregor.

On the evening of February 13 an informal dance was held at the house, with about fifty couples present. Music was furnished by Jack Warfield's orchestra of Wichita. The social committee is making plans for the spring formal and it is hinted about that they have something new in mind which they intend to work out.

Much interest has been shown by the whole chapter in intramural athletics. The next event in line is the wrestling tournament and at the present time there is one man entered in each class, with the prospects of getting two in several of the classes. With the remaining events in the future there is a good prospect of raising the score.

The second School of Business smoker was held at the house last Wednesday evening with a large crowd present. The speaker of the evening was Mr. H. C. Garrison, president of the Wichita division of the Wholesalers Credit Exchange. He gave a brief summary of the business carried on in the exchange and told what the business expected of its employees, and the opportunities in it for a young man.

Realizing that the essence of life is competition, Iota Chapter has divided itself into sides, the losers furnishing a party for the chapter. Points are made by the rushing and pledging of men.

Iota Chapter marked the ending of the first semester by initiating seven new members. Those brought into the chapter were Donald Bollard, Marvin Beery, Charles Potter, Hugh Taylor, Jule Triemer, Ellsworth Schoeni, and Professor Clarence McGregor.

KAPPA CHAPTER » » » »

« « « « GEORGIA TECH

By WEYMAN C. EVANS, Correspondent.

Kappa Chapter is proud to announce that Gelon E. Wasden has been given a Beta Gamma Sigma key. We are all glad to see Gelon become a member of this honorary fraternity. He is a very active Deltasig, and is very popular on the campus. The following members of Delta Sigma Pi were elected to school offices when the recent class elections were held: freshman class, Charlie Welch, vice-president; sophomore class, Weyman C. (Dad) Evans, vice-president; junior class, Guy Swanson, president, and Charles S. McKagen, vice-president; senior class, Bernard Suttler, vice-president.

Lawrence Cole is president of the Interfraternity Society Council, and Charlie McKagen is one of the representatives. The following brothers are members of the Student Council: Weyman C. (Dad) Evans, Charlie McKagen, Earl C. Carpenter, and Robert Thrasher. These men were chosen by an election of the classes to represent them in the council.

Brother Tom E. Sikes of Beta Gamma Chapter visited Kappa on the first of February, and spent several days with us. The alumni club honored Tom with a luncheon on Wednesday, February 4. A large number of the actives and alumni were present for the occasion. Kappa is always glad to have visiting brothers with us; an invitation is always open to any brother visiting our city.

The following brothers were formally initiated into Delta Sigma Pi on February 14: James D. Poage, Marvin G. Brown, Rufus Gravitt, Fred Owen, Allen Campbell, Henry Walker, George Wilcox, and Howard B. Johnson. This is an unusually fine class and Kappa is expecting some great work from these eight new brothers. They have the ability, and we hope that they will put plenty of pep into all of their undertakings in the interest of the fraternity.

We are very proud of Preston Barber,

LAMBDA CHAPTER " " " " "

" " " " " PITTSBURGH

By ORVILLE E. WEBER, Correspondent.

The past month has been a dull one as far as fraternity activities are concerned. This is necessarily so due to the rush of preparing for the mid-year exams and cleaning up odds and ends that belonged to the old term. Although a complete checkup has not yet been made, it appears that our losses in active membership will be small this year.

The new term commences February 9, and studies will begin again with scarcely a pause. The date of February 28 has been set for our first smoker of the new year. The Activities Committee promises an interesting program. One of the features will be the showing of the film of the national convention at Detroit. Several high class entertainers have been booked and we are assured that the program will be of the first rate.

The appearance of the Lambda Lantern has been most welcome. The first issue appeared at a fraternity meeting held February 6. Features of the issue were articles written by members of Lambda Chapter. We congratulate the newly initiated men on this their first effort and urge them to continue this most needed chapter organ.

A full schedule of activities has been planned for the second half of the year.

MU CHAPTER " " " " "

" " " " " GEORGETOWN

By ANDRÉ DE PORRY, Correspondent.

Your correspondent at Mu shook himself out of bed this morning, (or maybe it was this afternoon), feeling like a cross between Will Rogers and Cal Coolidge, (whatever that may be), and decided to unburden himself of the following information.

We have recently pledged seven men to Delta Sigma Pi. We wish you could see what a lusty lot they are. However, we have promised them an interesting goating period and are doing our best to prevent their being disappointed.

At one of our smokers we had the pleasure of having eighteen brothers from Chi Chapter of Baltimore with us. They came over in an imposing looking bus equipped with everything but a combination kitchen sink and lemon squeezer. But as several of the brothers, whose word is not to be doubted, reported that they had left the baby, (whose baby?), at home asleep in the aforementioned sink, and that none of them knew what a lemon squeezer was for, we guess everything was all right.

At any rate, we of Mu Chapter certainly did enjoy having the company of such a large and impressive representation from Chi Chapter, and we wish to thank them right out in public for the help they gave us in making that particular smoker such an outstanding success. And was it a success? Phew!

If ever we can find one of those new fangled busses in Washington we are very apt to come right back at Chi.

Mu is busy making plans for the coming initiation which is expected to be a big affair. But such information not as yet being ready for publication, we'll tell you more about it when we next break into print.

For the present, we take our bow and retire. (No. adv.)

NU CHAPTER " " " " "

" " " " " OHIO STATE

By E. G. SOMMER, Head Master.

The winter quarter at Ohio State is the shortest of the year and consequently our studies have kept our noses to the proverbial grindstone. However, we had time to entertain our alumni on January 14. A smoker was held on February 4, at which time we were given a very interesting talk by Dr. Dameron of the Business Organization department. Dr. Dameron is a new man at the university, but his teaching experience has carried him from New York to California as well as to several southern universities.

We held a very successful house dance on the evening of February 21, which was followed by a dinner for our faculty members on Washington's birthday. Plans are now being made for a smoker to be held during the week of March 22. The speaker will be Professor Miller of the Sociology department. He is one of the best speakers in the university and will talk on India and Gandhi.

The final and biggest event of the quarter is our winter formal, to be held on March 7 at the Brookside Country Club, the newest and most sought-for in Columbus. We expect to see many of the alumni back on this occasion for it will be a real affair.

XI CHAPTER » » » » » « « « « « MICHIGAN

By MAX C. HENDERSON, Correspondent.

With the beginning of the new semester Xi is anticipating a wind-up for the year which will be something for the men of future years to strive for. Seven neophytes will be invested with the badge of Delta Sigma Pi at the formal initiation of March 7. This will be followed by a banquet and formal dance at the Michigan League. With the six brothers who were initiated in November, we hope for a total of eighteen after the March and May initiations. There are eleven seniors graduating in June so that there should be a good organization left to start the ball rolling next fall. The rushing situation grows no better here, but we hope that a fair percentage of the sizeable group of prospects that we have will prove to be suitable material.

The annual J-Hop on February 13 gave the social lions of the house another opportunity to assert themselves. Xi had a booth, as is customary, which was enjoyed by several guests from other houses and from out of town. A breakfast was served at four o'clock, after which everyone agreed that J-Hops tend to get better in spite of the recent depression.

Ralph Van Arman, who has been associated with Xi Chapter for six years and who has seen it develop from its infancy, left us at the end of the past semester to enter the consular service. Paul A. Bross also has entered the "school of hard knocks." With both of them go the hearty wishes of all of us for every possible success. With the achievements of former Xi alumni before them as a goal, they should go far in the business world.

The ancient belief that professional houses cannot turn out athletic teams seems to have become discredited this year. In intra-mural competition we have entered a team in every event so far with the most favorable of results. We now stand first among the professional fraternities and third on the whole campus. With continued success we hope to have another cup to add to our collection in the spring.

We cannot but notice the decided improvement of chapter letters this year. Hardly a day passes without the receipt of a fat letter with the news of some chapter. Keep it up!

PI CHAPTER » » » » » « « « « « GEORGIA

By CLENON E. NEVIL, Correspondent.

Pi Chapter was very sorry to lose Bailey Henderson and Leon Walton, who dropped out of school at the end of the first semester.

Several pledges are to become brothers at an initiation which will be announced soon.

Professor H. B. Moore of Eta Chapter, who has recently joined the faculty of the School of Commerce at the University of Georgia, is very popular among the students. He always has a helping hand for the brothers and we are glad to welcome him into our midst.

At the last meeting plans were made to sponsor a combination professional and social meeting at least once a month. At these meetings the brothers, with their friends and dates, are to hear some of the successful business men of the town give talks on their particular business. These talks will be followed by dancing and refreshments. It is the aim that with these meetings we can build up a better spirit among the brothers and other students of the university.

Some of the brothers who are taking part in campus activities are: Ralph Keene, business manager for the annual; Tom Crittenden, assistant in the Research department, also Beta Gamma Sigma; M. P. Hughes, Senior cheer leader, member of the Debating Council, photograph editor for the annual, captain in the cavalry unit of the R. O. T. C.

It was with interest that we read the article on The Central Office in Chicago which appeared in the January issue of Banta's Greek Exchange.

It is always understood that visiting brothers will be cordially welcomed; the latch is hanging just outside the door.

SIGMA CHAPTER » » » » » « « « « « « « UTAH

By JAMES M. SILVER, Correspondent.

The school year has been operating smoothly for each member of Sigma Chapter. The new budget system has proven successful in aid of financial problems.

Our bi-weekly banquets benefit us both in social and educational movements. We endeavor to obtain men for speakers who have gained a place in the commercial fields. They offer us many valuable suggestions and helps from their experiences in business life.

Sigma Chapter is proud of the fact that we have Paul Smith, Allen Barnard, Bud Nell, and Rudolph Miller outstanding in polo.

In the Commercial Club we have Bus James as president and Ralph Johnson as secretary. Bus James is also lieutenant colonel of the Army and head yell master of the school.

We are now making plans for a spring formal which will be the great event of the year. These formal parties very often result in a transfer of a badge from the young man to the young lady. These formal parties have their interesting moments.

It is the aim of the fraternity to maintain a high scholarship record and likewise we endeavor to win athletic and social victories which will bring an increasing popularity on the Utah campus.

PHI CHAPTER » » » » » « « SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

By PAUL ARMSTRONG, Correspondent.

With the advent of a new semester, Phi Chapter has much to look forward to on the campus.

The week of February 15 to 22 is to be devoted to the attention of nine prospective Deltasigs, who are slowly but surely rounding themselves into fraternalism as exemplified by Delta Sigma Pi. The active chapter for several weeks has been devising means of entertaining our guests during this popular week.

We were honored by the visit of Grand Secretary-Treasurer H. G. Wright to Phi Chapter over the period extending from January 29 to February 5. We feel that we have prospered greatly as a result of Brother Wright's visit and look forward to entertaining him again soon. Several events were planned by both active and alumni chapters honoring our distinguished guest. On the 29th the two groups gave a banquet and smoker at the chapter house. On the following night, a joint active and alumni dance was given at the Blossom Room, Roosevelt Hotel, Hollywood and advertised as "Deltasig Night." It seems that Brother Wright had to visit us at a time when Jupe Pluvius was not in a favorable mood, and hence he can not carry back to Chicago reports of "glowing California sunshine."

The new officers elected for the spring semester are as follows:

Head Master	Fred Smith
Senior Warden	Richard Mirk
Junior Warden	Joe Rindone
Scribe	Charles Clay
Chancellor	Hugh Bargon
Social Chairman	Milton Reese
Senior Guide	Maurice Cashion
Junior Guide	Stewart Paulin
Historian	Garr Gibson
House Manager	Stoddard Jess
Chapter Correspondent

Phi Chapter will play for the championship of the Professional Basketball League on Wednesday, February 18. Our opponents will be the Scarabs. Although we have not yet lost a game, we are in no position to assume a confident attitude. Therefore, we are practicing hard with the firm intention of winning that coveted plaque.

With the new semester already here, we find a change in the personnel of those within the house. Two of our brothers who have served the chapter well have left Southern California for their homes in the East. Lynn Hanson, a transfer from Alpha Epsilon, has left for Minneapolis, where he will re-enter the University of Minnesota at the beginning of the spring semester. At the same time Eugene Dana left for a trip to his home town of Perry, Iowa. However, Gene, more commonly known as "Pole," will be back with us in September.

Phi Chapter wishes to extend a hearty invitation to visit us at 700 West 28th Street—the key is lost—come on in.

CHI CHAPTER » » » » » « « « « JOHNS HOPKINS

By HOWARD E. WINSTANLEY, Correspondent

Chi Chapter, having established for itself a most enviable record during the initial part of the present scholastic year, is persistently forging ahead toward still greater achievement. Strengthened by eleven new brothers who are now assiduously engaged in all activities of the chapter, Chi is veritably jamming the pages of its history with many interesting and memorable events.

The year 1931 was ushered in at the Silvernian by a splendid turnout of Deltasigs. Although discovered to be rather small for such a gathering, the night club, which was engaged exclusively for the occasion, served excellently, nevertheless, in supplying an abundance of entertainment and pleasure. Brothers and friends began to arrive about eleven o'clock, and before midnight all available space was taken. The entrance of the new year was accompanied by the usual joyous welcome, and the customary but esteemed downing of lights. Amusement was furnished through the medium of a number of entertaining acts by the management, and additional songs and recitations by members of the chapter. Chi-folk danced to the tunes of a peppy orchestra until three o'clock, at which time the "party" was brought to a conclusion.

On January 9, seventeen brothers made a pilgrimage to a rush smoker held by Mu Chapter of Georgetown University. A bus was hired which comfortably carried the delegation to the capital city within a relatively short time. After arriving in Washington, the crowd journeyed to the Army and Navy Country Club, at Arlington, Va., where the smoker was held. Chi wishes to thank its brothers of Mu for the very fine reception extended us.

Several members of the chapter made a somewhat similar trip to Philadelphia a month previously to visit Omega chapter house, and had the pleasure of helping to initiate 37 brothers into the Order of the Yellow Dog.

Our first winter rush smoker was held on Thursday, January 15, at Levering Hall, at the university. This meeting was addressed by our esteemed faculty adviser, Dr. Leslie W. Baker, who delivered another one of his interesting talks. Miss Helen Meeks, the "Personality Girl," later entertained by rendering a number of the latest song hits. Brother Nelson Mitchell, who is quite an artist in obtaining music out of the snapping of fingers, finally was induced to render one of his "bone solos," which was greeted by vociferous applause.

On January 22, it was our pleasure to have with us as a special speaker Mr. Walter E. Beuchelt, assistant secretary to Mayor Broening, who favored us with a very interesting talk in which he explained many of the intricacies of city government. This was followed by a number of selections by a pianist and Brother Hahn, our talented saxophonist. Our musical program was interrupted very promptly when it was announced that "eats" were obtainable without charge in the next room, and brothers and prospective pledges hastily deposited themselves on the outside of a generous supply of refreshments.

Chi held its first formal dance of the new year on Saturday, January 24, at Levering Hall. Although attendance was restricted to brothers and a very limited number of close friends, the dance was a success socially and financially. We are looking forward to more similar affairs.

Grand President E. L. Schujahn honored Chi with his presence at our weekly luncheon on Thursday, January 29, at the Lord Baltimore Hotel. A splendid number of brothers turned out to welcome him to Baltimore. Unfortunately, Brother Schujahn was unable to stay over until the meeting in the evening. However, we were grateful, indeed, to have our Grand President as our guest, and hope that his next visit may be of a longer duration.

Our final rush smoker was held on Sunday, February 1. Four men were pledged on Thursday, February 5. After the pledging ceremony, these neophytes were given over to Goatmaster Fauth Ross, our "man mountain," who gave out his initial instructions. Instructions were also given by former Goatmaster Earlie Hardesty, as only Earlie can give them. Charlie Nichols was introduced to the new goats as assistant goatmaster.

On Valentine's Day, Saturday, February 14, Chi held another "barn dance" at Edgewood Barn. Our last barn dance proved to be such a success than Brother William F. Allison, our master of festivities, planned another unique affair. Sport clothes were the order of the evening. Everything from golf ensembles to football jerseys were in evidence. This dance was another distinctive success.

Our active chapter and the Baltimore Alumni Club held a joint smoker on Monday, February 23, at which the feature was the presentation of a motion picture of the Grand Chapter Congress which was held in Detroit last September. The picture was a source of unusual interest to every Deltasig present as it gave an insight into the administrative affairs of our fraternity. There were plenty of "smokes" and the meeting eventually turned into a regular gabfest.

Spring hell week for Chi will be held from March 1 to 7. Plans have been made to insure our goats a real "hot" week. This final initiation will climax the arduous program prepared by our goatmaster.

The Chi Crier, our monthly paper, is being published regularly through the untiring efforts of Editor Hugh Taylor and Assistant Editor T. Donnell Schildwachter. The revival of this news-letter has been responsible for a new degree of interest not only among the active members, but decidedly among the alumni.

Chi's success this year is largely due to the excellent leadership of Head Master Walter Baggs, who is being supported in a splendid manner by our whole active chapter.

In conclusion, Chi extends an invitation to any brother visiting Baltimore to join us at our luncheons which are held each Thursday between twelve and one, at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, and in addition, extends to all other chapters its best wishes for continued growth and success.

PSI CHAPTER " " " " "

" " " " " WISCONSIN

By IVAN POTTER, Correspondent.

First place in the Badger Bowl race! How does that sound to you? Some sixty other fraternities on the campus and Psi heads them all. We are riding on top as a result of taking second place in interfraternity hockey and third place in swimming. Two cups have been added to our well crowded mantel, a tall, beautiful cup in hockey and a midget in swimming. Each is the result of plenty of fight and true Deltasig sportsmanship.

Our athletes do not intend to let Psi slip from first place in this stiff interfraternity competition. With the season about to close, Psi is as yet undefeated in basketball. It is rumored that we will have a real baseball team that will help bring that Badger Bowl to 132 Breese Terrace.

With final exams a thing of the past and every man still with us, attention was directed to the Prom. Nineteen Deltasigs attended a typically successful Wisconsin Prom. A post-prom party at the house the following night added to the social success of the week-end.

We are mighty glad to see Lloyd Giessel and Earl Hanson back in school. Donald Hackney and Arno Myers, our February graduates, are both working men now, in spite of the current depression.

Fenton Muehl is undergoing the severity of a Florida winter. He plans on resuming his studies in the fall. Curtis Tartar, of Eta Chapter in Kentucky, who was with us at Wisconsin last semester doing graduate work, has left us for a warmer climate.

Although Psi has a full house there is always room and a cordial welcome awaiting any brother reaching Madison.

OMEGA CHAPTER " " "

" " " " " TEMPLE

By WILLIAM C. BLACK, Correspondent.

With the mid-year examinations a thing of the past Omega Chapter heaves a sigh of relief and is back to normal.

Three of our brothers were awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Commerce, at the regular mid-year commencement exercises, February 16. The chapter wishes to extend their best wishes for the future success of Brothers Stanton Reynolds, Edwin Johnson, and Cecil Colvin. We also wish to congratulate Hiram Marsh, who was awarded a certificate upon the completion of a two year course in commerce. Hiram, however, has decided to stay at Temple in order to get a Bachelor of Science degree.

Plans have been made for a birthday party on February 17, Omega's eighth anniversary. Jim Davidheiser, who has charge of the affair, has very little to say and has managed to keep most of the brothers in suspense for some time by his mysterious attitude. As a result we are looking forward to a big turn-out of both active and alumni members.

The bowlers are getting a good start in the second half of the inter-fraternity bowling league and things are looking as though we would be in some lively competition before long. We are all hoping that our "alley men" can put another trophy in the cabinet with last year's.

After boiling down the talk of our golfers we have decided that perhaps they are almost as good as they say they are, for at the present time they hold first place in the interfraternity miniature golf tournament.

Whenever there is a party or social function to be planned Jimmie Davidheiser is called upon, and Omega helped to make the interfraternity ball the affair it was by furnishing Davidheiser as a member of the financial committee and also by receiving great co-operation from the rest of the brothers in attendance. The ball was the first affair of its kind to be held in the new Mitten Memorial Hall, the most complete recreational building of its kind on a college campus, and it was a complete success from every point of view.

With half of the school year behind us Omega is now spurring itself on to complete the many things that have been started and is aiming to surpass itself in achievement.

We want to extend our welcome to brothers from other chapters who come to Philadelphia to visit us—the house is always open and there is always some one here.

ALPHA BETA CHAPTER » » « « « « « « MISSOURI

By ROBERT HAL JEAN, Correspondent.

On February 5 Alpha Beta had a smoker, which was attended by a good many commerce students and practically all of the actives now in school. These smokers are helping us carry out the social program which was outlined at the start of the year. We found several likely neophytes in the group of commerce students which attended the smoker and hope to pledge some of them in a few days.

A good many of our active members will graduate this coming spring, or summer term, leaving a number of vacancies that will have to be filled to carry on the program of work that has been outlined for Alpha Beta in the future.

The basketball team that was organized by Charles Wood has made a very creditable showing against other teams entered in the inter-fraternity basketball tournament being held by the University of Missouri. There still remain a few games to be played, but if the team continues at its present form there is every reason to believe that we will have a good record for the tournament.

On December 15 Brother H. G. Wright paid us a long-looked-for visit. We held a special chapter meeting that night, so Brother Wright could attend one of our meetings. After the meeting adjourned, Brother Wright talked to us about various matters concerning the fraternity and The Central Office.

We are now starting on our second semester. Following the final examinations of the first semester, we held the election of officers of Alpha Beta, and the following officers were elected:

Head Master . . . A. S. Penniston
Treasurer . . . Donald L. Wolz
Scribe . . . Charles H. Wood
Senior Warden . . . Albert B. Grubb
Junior Warden . . . F. Carlton Parrish
Senior Guide . . . Shelton Phillips
Junior Guide . . . G. Harold Miller
Historian . . . Herman Carl Olson
Master of Ceremonies

Fred L. Johnson
Chancellor . . . Ivan M. West
Correspondent . . . R. Hal Jean

Arthur Wallace and Andrew Hawkins graduated this past semester, and Ben J. Schwabe was forced to discontinue school, leaving us with only twenty-seven actives now on the chapter roll.

Five of our actives drove out to Lawrence, Kansas, to witness the Missouri-Kansas basketball game, played on January 29, and they brought back a report of a dance to be given by the Kansas chapter on February 13. Several actives plan to drive out to Lawrence for the dance.

ALPHA GAMMA CHAPTER » « « « « « « PENN STATE

By G. B. WELCH, Correspondent.

The latest news from Alpha Gamma can be condensed to three things: (1) The smoker, (2) the initiation and (3) the formal dinner. The smoker resulted in eight men taking the pledge of Delta Sigma Pi; the initiation made these neophytes our new brothers, and the dinner which followed was the result of thirty hungry brothers asking for food.

The newly initiated men are Brothers Brand, Briggs, Brightbill, Cochran, Coxe, Kline, Phillips, and Shaeffer. The first six are enrolled as juniors here at Penn State while Phillips and Shaeffer are sophomores in the same school. So far they have not been able to do much for Alpha Gamma but we have the greatest confidence in their ability and believe they shall be heard from long before the semester comes to an end.

The features of the dinner which followed the initiation held on February 8 were the impromptu speeches of the new initiates. Brother Mitch of the department of Economics then spoke a few words more for the benefit of the chapter than as an address—an idea, which if carried out, will make Alpha Gamma a more outstanding fraternity on our campus than it is today.

At the present time we have not had our elections which, unfortunately, prevents us from giving you any idea at all of those who are going to be intrusted with the leadership of this chapter. Perhaps after our next luncheon we will be in a position to do that.

Of the active chapter itself, there are thirty-five members, some of these are aspirants for managerial positions of the various athletic teams, others are holding regular positions on the basketball, baseball, track and wrestling teams; the editor and business manager of two of the college editorials are also retained by Deltasigs, while the remaining portion of the chapter are scholastic leaders of their classes.

ALPHA DELTA CHAPTER » » « « « « « NEBRASKA

By ELMER E. LIND, Correspondent.

With the close of the fall term, Alpha Delta completed another very successful semester. Everyone has been working with a zeal that is indeed invigorating, and so with this assuring thought and with added enthusiasm we turn our eyes to the work of our new semester.

The regular fall elections were held January 7. Frank B. Smith was re-elected as Head Master. Our newly elected officers are:

Senior Warden	. . .	George Wragge
Junior Warden	. . .	Robert Graham
Treasurer	Pierce Jones
Scribe	Herman Siefkes
Senior Guide	Earl Hald
Junior Guide	Emory Peterson
Historian	Richard McKenzie
Correspondent	Elmer E. Lind

On January 20 the chapter held a banquet at the Lincoln Hotel, at which occasion we had the pleasure of having H. G. Wright, Grand Secretary-Treasurer, as our guest. He gave us a very interesting and illuminating address on his work with the different chapters and the various phases of the work that is being carried on at The Central Office. We were glad to learn about the many services and possibilities of the future, especially of the proposed Placement Bureau. We regret that Brother Wright was unable to spend more time with us.

However, as his schedule included Alpha Nu Chapter on the following day, he was unable to do so.

With the commencement of our second semester, preparations are being made for the acquisition of new pledges. A series of smokers will be held, the first of which is scheduled for February 18, at which time every brother is to bring a rushee. As a result of the large number of men who are to graduate this spring, the future of our chapter depends greatly upon the men who have recently been initiated and those who may be pledged during this semester.

Lynn Waggoner of Dillard, Nebraska, is again with us this semester, after having been out of school during the fall term.

Clyde Yost, who is one of our seniors, has secured a position with L. L. Coryell & Son of Lincoln. He is taking up his duties at once and is completing his course by evening school. Brother Yost is a brother in the true sense of the word, and we wish him the best of luck in his new work.

Other brothers who are graduating this spring are: Glen Atkins, Vincent Eggleston, Elmore Melander, Russell Andrews, J. Miller Richey, Donald Exley, Harvey Goering, Geo. S. Austin, Ed Mortensen, Ross Brown, H. M. Demel, John Rosse, Claude Parkison, and Peter Wiebe.

ALPHA EPSILON CHAPTER » « « « « « MINNESOTA

By ROGER G. O'MALLEY, Correspondent.

On the evening of January 17, after a week of hazing, twelve neophytes were initiated into Delta Sigma Pi. The new brothers are: Francis Bunn, Ralph Chase, Franklin Johnson, Leo Nurmi, Howard Buckley, Merle Newberg, Edwin Chown, Byron White, Wallace Peterson, Maurice Scott, John McCracken, and Blynn Beck.

Winter at Minnesota is the social season, and Alpha Epsilon has been busy taking in all the events. The biggest of the events was the Deltasig winter formal held January 17, in honor of the new initiates. The party was held in the Twin Cities' finest ball room in the Hotel Lowry in St. Paul. The Inter-Professional Ball, January 30, and the Junior Prom, February 11, were also held at the Lowry. Brother Mortimer Watson, junior class president, was in the line of march at the latter event.

Orden Ihle, chairman of the Ninth Annual Business School Banquet, with the cooperation and support of the chapter, was responsible for the success of the above event. The banquet was held February 25. W. J. Donald of the American Management association was the principal speaker of the evening. About two hundred and fifty students, faculty members, and business men attended.

Alpha Epsilon turned out a fair basketball team this winter under the able coaching of Louis Dorweiler. We finished second in the division, losing but one game, and that by the close score of 26-24.

Alpha Epsilon is always in for scholastic achievements. Bob Shave is president and Bob Bruce is vice-president of Beta Gamma Sigma.

Alpha Epsilon is on the banks of the Mississippi—drop in some time.

ALPHA ZETA CHAPTER » » « « « « « TENNESSEE

By J. R. BOOTH, Scribe.

With time for initiation drawing near, we are proud to announce that we will soon have a few more outstanding men joined with us in fraternal bonds. The third week of February has been set as the approximate date for our initiation ceremonies.

In the recent indoor relays held at Tennessee the School of Commerce team won the cup given in college competition. In doing this they set a new college record for the course. All Deltasigs are trying to further this spirit of co-operation and active participation evidenced by the students of commerce. We hope that in the next issue we may report more triumphs such as this.

During the first part of this new year we have had several very interesting meetings. Head Master Althausser is certainly giving himself to the work he has undertaken. We have also been helped by the acquisition of a new meeting place where we can have the privacy we were denied the first quarter. Some very helpful talks have been given by business men of this city.

ALPHA ETA CHAPTER » » « « « « « SOUTH DAKOTA

By FRANCIS FETZNER, Scribe.

The second semester finds Alpha Eta Chapter with a well outlined program for the next few months.

The visit by H. G. Wright on Sunday,

January 18, was certainly inspiring to the chapter. We were very glad to have Brother Wright with us, for his many suggestions will be carried out and much progress will take place during the next semester.

The chapter held an initiation on Sunday, January 25. The following men were initiated into Delta Sigma Pi: Grover A. Noetzel, instructor in Economics, Harry E. Olson, associate professor of Accounting, Burrill G. Monk, Myrle Hilton, Richard C. Holdorf, Virgil D. Ferris, and Charles E. Robertson. The chapter is very proud to announce that every member on the faculty in the School of Business Administration is a Deltasig. We feel that this will greatly aid the chapter in carrying out a program of expansion, which we wish to do.

Burton E. Tiffany, manager of the co-operative store, has recently moved the store into the new Union building, which has just recently been completed. Brother Tiffany working on this new project together with his teaching duties, every one will admit, is the busiest man on the campus. With the expansion of the store much new help was needed, thus benefitting students in the School of Business Administration, for it is the practice to employ students in this school.

The formal dance for the chapter is to be held March 7, in the new Union building. Thirty-five couples are expected to attend, and according to the various committees in charge it promises to be one of those affairs that is never forgotten.

At the initiation banquet, which was held at noon at the Waldorf hotel, the office of the Keeper of the Parchment Roll was filled. Brother Noetzel was the successful candidate, and pledged heartily to fill the office to his utmost capacity.

The chapter plans to hold another initiation in the next few weeks. The grades for the first semester will then be available and it is expected to take in eight men at this time.

Alpha Eta wishes to express its hope that every brother and chapter will gain its high hopes for the coming year in much the same way we wish to do at South Dakota University.

ALPHA THETA CHAPTER » » « « « « « CINCINNATI

By EDWARD T. LOCKE, Correspondent.

Even though cramming and the bug-a-boo mid-year exams have occupied a great deal of time since the last writing, your Alpha Theta brothers have been bubbling over with activity.

On January 25, at the Metropole Hotel, the wings of six unsuspecting pledges were clipped during a very successful initiation. These new brothers, who not so long ago were lowly pledges (but weren't we all), and now are proudly sporting the badge of Delta Sigma Pi are: Albert Hohman, Leo Woerner, Elmer Early, John Fairbanks, Joseph Muschler, and James McDonald. They're the cream of the crop, too—watch 'em grow.

Following this glorious affair we were forced to "watch the birdie," after which the remains of the photographer's camera were swept into a neat pile. Fortunately, we were able to save one photograph, a reproduction of which will be found elsewhere in this issue. Incidentally, the expressions on the faces of our new brothers are those of relief, not fright.

At the enjoyable dinner which followed, Elmer Early was elected Keeper of the Parchment Roll, by a very narrow margin. His speech of acceptance, if available, would interest you immensely.

The closing business of this day of days was that of the election of officers. Those who will hold the reins during 1931 are:

Head Master . . . Robert Othling
Senior Warden . . . Charles Goosman
Junior Warden . . . Donald Stohlman
Treasurer . . . Howard Wade
Scribe . . . Donald Murphy

During our meeting of February 4 we enjoyed a showing of the motion pictures taken at the Tenth Grand Chapter Congress. Ed Uhl, our delegate, substituting for the sound mechanism, made the picture somewhat of a "talkie." All joking aside, we should all feel greatly indebted to Bob Johnson and his assistants whose efforts made these interesting pictures possible.

Bob Othling, our new Head Master, presiding at this meeting, presented some very interesting material for discussion. An extensive program is being planned which we know will place Delta Sigma Pi well up among the leaders on the University of Cincinnati campus. It was also decided to publish a monthly chapter bulletin, beginning immediately.

The outstanding event of the season—our winter formal, took place on February 7 at the Kemper Lane Hotel. Howard Wade and his committee, consisting of Bob Othling, Don Stohlman, and Werner Gholson, were in charge of this affair, which was by far the most successful ever held. Dinner was served promptly at 8 p. m. and was followed by a very enjoyable evening of dancing. Ed Freshney's Collegians, one of Cincinnati's most popular orchestras, furnished the music.

At this affair we had the pleasure of acting as host to Bob Goacher, Alpha Upsilon Head Master, Pledge Berry, promising Alpha Upsilon pledge, and Brother Jim Reed, Eta alumnus. We certainly enjoyed their company and want to see them again, as well as all other brothers who can arrange to be with us. The date of our spring formal has tentatively been set for May 2. Bundle up your glad rags and join us—we'll guarantee you the time of your life.

ALPHA IOTA CHAPTER » »

« « « « « « DRAKE
By KENNETH W. HILL, Correspondent.

Greetings from Alpha Iota! Our chapter has been very busy during the past three months with social functions, smokers, meetings, and rushing parties. We now have seven new pledges of extraordinary promise who should make very creditable members for Delta Sigma Pi. At the present time we are working out a definite program of rushing which should build up our chapter substantially.

The biggest event of the semester was the visit of Grand Secretary-Treasurer H. G. Wright on January 16. Brother Wright had a luncheon with the alumni club at the Polyclinic Cafe. A large number of the alumni were present to talk of the past and future of the chapter. During the afternoon Brother Wright met with the officers of the chapter to discuss with them the different problems of making a chapter successful.

The same evening the entire chapter honored their grand secretary-treasurer by giving a banquet in his honor at the chapter house, located at 2931 Cottage Grove Avenue. Brother Wright gave a most interesting talk concerning the magnitude and future of Delta Sigma Pi. He told some very amusing experiences concerning his work at The Central Office. Later in the evening, following the banquet, a most enjoyable dance was given at the Commodore Hotel. The luxurious ballroom, the enchanting music, and the abundance of good fellowship and punch combined to make this dance one of the most successful ever sponsored by Alpha Iota.

Our chapter is now represented in intramural sports by a most competent basketball team. Considerable interest is being shown in this phase of activity and our team will certainly make a place for itself in this branch of university life.

The alumni club holds weekly luncheons at the Polyclinic Cafe every Friday noon. On February 25, 1931, they are going to be hosts to the active chapter at a stag party to be given at the Alps Club. Very attractive arrangements have been made and this party should go on record as being one of the most successful stag parties yet scheduled.

We have a complete program of activities outlined for the spring semester which includes: a spring dance, two initiations, monthly banquets, smokers, and open house for the Drake Relays on April 24 and 25.

Alpha Iota's prospects for a stronger and finer chapter were never better. We have a fine chapter house, a dandy group of fellows, and rate among the highest in scholastic attainments of any group on the campus. Alpha Iota Chapter joins the other chapters in putting forth greater effort in the interests of Delta Sigma Pi.

ALPHA KAPPA CHAPTER » »

« « « « « « BUFFALO
By L. G. ESHELMAN, Correspondent.

Informal initiation, hell week and then, the grand finale, formal initiation, which took place for Alpha Kappa Chapter December 19, 1930 at the Westbrook Apartments in Buffalo. Four meek initiates, Albert A. Conner, Sydney J. Johnson, Robert E. Starkweather, and Fred S. Taber, took themselves before the High Tribunal. Hand shakes all-around and then, dinner. Whereupon, the brothers partook heartily and had an uproariously good time. The remainder of the evening was spent in "playing games."

A tea was held Christmas afternoon at the chapter house for brothers and their parents. It was well attended and before very long every one knew each other and were conversing like old school chums. A splendid idea and one which should be encouraged. Enables the folks to see just what a fine bunch of chaps make up Delta Sigma Pi.

Another of those scintillating house parties was held January 31, 1931 at the chapter house. The regrettable part of it was that it certainly wasn't as well attended as it might have been. Rest assured that those who did attend weren't depressed in the slightest. We made up in enthusiasm what we lacked in numbers, say they.

The first meeting of the Buffalo Alumni Club was held Tuesday, February 10, 1931 at Gandy's Restaurant in Buffalo. These notes go in before the meeting takes place but it promises to be an interesting and lively affair.

ALPHA LAMBDA CHAPTER » « « « NORTH CAROLINA

By BENJAMIN KENDRICK, Correspondent.

The first smoker of the new year given by Alpha Lambda was held on January 25. Professor Frank K. Cameron of the University Chemistry department spoke on the topic, "Prospective Commercial Use of Cotton Fibre in the Manufacture of Rayon." In view of Professor Cameron's recent announcement, which has achieved nationwide attention, that he and N. W. Dockery, a graduate student, are on the threshold of such commercialized production, the speech was received with keen interest. In his talk Professor Cameron approached the subject from an economic as well as from a chemical standpoint, pointing out that such a development would revolutionize agriculture in the Southeast, a section rapidly losing its former dominance in the production of cotton. Refreshments were served after the talk to the large crowd of members and guests who were present.

A committee from Alpha Lambda recently met with the members of Beta Delta at North Carolina State College, and arrangements were made to hold a joint banquet on March 6 at the Carolina Inn in Chapel Hill. A distinguished speaker has already been secured, increasing the anticipation among Alpha Lambda members with which the occasion is awaited. All alumni and members of the chapters will be invited.

Brother James K. Smith, a member of the U. N. C. track team, returned Monday from New York City, where the team was entered in the Millrose games. The mile relay team, of which he is a member, placed second.

Much outweighed, he lost in the first match with Princeton on a time decision, but he came back strong against the Navy, defeating his man on a fall. Since then he has gained a time advantage against his opponent from V. P. I.

ALPHA NU CHAPTER » »

« « « « « « DENVER

By GEORGE R. WALTER, Correspondent.

The old axiom "Business before pleasure" has of necessity been the guiding hand of Alpha Nu Chapter during the last month. The closing of the first semester and the finals following in its wake, and the registration for the new semester have forced us to forego the more pleasurable diversifications of life for the grimness of business.

After registration we turned our attention to a more pleasurable pastime, that of entertaining prospective members. Alpha Nu Chapter because of a school requirement must operate on a deferred pledging basis. Such a requirement, of course, not only gives us an opportunity to better know the new men but it also gives these new men a chance to become acquainted with the high ideals of Delta Sigma Pi. We expect to pledge some fifteen or more men. Alpha Nu believes "Quality before quantity" is a good rule, and we are going to confine our pledging activities to the select men, those whom members of Delta Sigma Pi may feel justly proud to call brother. Any man at the University of Denver, School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance who, this semester in particular, is fortunate enough to find himself the wearer of the crown and delta of our order may rightfully revel in the fact that he is one of the chosen few.

February 11, 1931, was the date of a most delightful rush-smoker which was given at the chapter house. About fifteen rushees were in attendance as were a great many actives and alumni. The program was as follows: A talk on "The Other Fellow" by Harry Wood, Chapter Adviser; the recitation of a poem, "The Hunter," by Harry Hickey; a talk on the founding of Alpha Nu Chapter by Ray Brandt, District Deputy and a founder of our chapter; a legerdemain demonstration by Wally Anderson, and entertainment by some professionals.

Tentative plans for initiation rites and activities are being formulated. It is the custom of Alpha Nu to hold mock initiation on the Friday night of hell week and formal initiation on Saturday afternoon, followed by a banquet and a formal dance in the evening. Our Master of Festivities, Dick Tydings, has already selected beautiful favors. The exact date of initiation has not yet been fixed but it will be held during the latter part of May.

Alpha Nu Chapter had the pleasure of entertaining Gig Wright on January 21, 1931. A luncheon was given in his honor at the Denver Chamber of Commerce. Brother Wright was the speaker; he gave us a most interesting talk on the present activities and future development and expansion of Delta Sigma Pi. The rushees, who were present, and the brothers were indeed loud in their praise of the talk. That night at a regular meeting of the chapter Brother Wright spoke to the actives and members of the Denver Alumni Club. After a discussion of fraternity affairs an open forum was allowed.

Every member of Alpha Nu Chapter expressed a sincere regret that Gig was forced to leave us so soon and we eagerly look forward to his next visit, which we hope will be soon and of a longer duration.

It has always been the custom of Alpha Nu to give an annual spring theater party. In spite of the fact that spring doesn't seem to be here, we went right ahead with the party, which was given on the nights of February 18 and 19. This is a most interesting affair and it is always a profit-making venture for us. The proceeds are going to be used to purchase some new furniture for the house.

Every once in a while we hear of some brother from another chapter who is in town. Fellows, there is no one whom we would like to see better than out of town brothers visiting at our house, 1856 Washington Street, Denver. As this location is only about twelve blocks from the heart of the city, you should experience no difficulty in reaching it. Sincerely, we do want you to drop in and see us. There will always be someone to welcome you.

ALPHA XI CHAPTER » » » « « « « « « VIRGINIA

By MILES POINDEXTER, Correspondent.

Refreshed from their Christmas vacation and imbued with renewed vigor, the members of Alpha Xi returned to school and began their work with a will.

The most interesting project sponsored by the chapter this season has been to substitute for the outside speakers, discussions led and carried on by the members. Plans for such a program were discussed before the holidays, and have since been carried out with good effects. The idea originated from a deficiency in outside speakers. Having only the faculty to call upon—as there are few business men in a town of this size—we felt somewhat backward in asking them to favor us with their presence so often. Consequently it was suggested that at each meeting two or three men should choose a subject and deliver a short talk from ten to twenty minutes duration. After they had expounded their allotted time, the rest of the members should join in by asking questions, and discussing the points brought out by those speaking. The experiment has proved both interesting and remunerative. Our last meeting was especially interesting as the subject discussed was on our banking system—some causes for recent failures, branch banking, etc. This seminar was led by R. M. Kent and Murray Ferguson, a candidate for final honors.

On February 2 the chapter was honored by a visit from E. E. Goehring, Alpha Beta, Director of Mid-Atlantic Province. Everyone was impressed by Brother Goehring's congenial personality, and enjoyed the visit very much. We only wish that the visits of the province officers could be more often.

At this time Alpha Xi takes the opportunity to extend its best wishes to its brothers in Delta Sigma Pi, and to extend an invitation to all brothers to drop in and see us whenever it is possible.

ALPHA OMICRON CHAPTER »

« « « « « « OHIO

By WALTER F. THOMPSON, Correspondent.

Alpha Omicron starts the second semester with all evidence of making a great showing on the campus of Ohio University.

Exams are over, but as yet the exact standings of the preps have not been given out. As soon as they are, we will know how many we are going to initiate. Right now the preps are wondering what hell week holds for them in the near future. By the time this goes to print their curiosity will no doubt have been satisfied.

The "Prep Follies" given by the pledge chapter for the actives on the eve of Christmas vacation was a night never to be forgotten. Professor Hanson and Professor Conrad were our guests and between the Christmas tree and the skits enacted by the preps, the whole affair was one of continuous amusement.

Elden Hauck, a junior, member of Blue Key, and treasurer of our chapter, had another honor bestowed upon him when he was chosen chairman of the Junior Prom. The Junior Prom is the biggest social function of the year at Ohio University and we are confident that Brother Hauck will make this year's prom the best ever.

Alumni dinners proved to be enjoyable during the last semester and we hope to have many more of them. And to our brothers in Delta Sigma Pi, we extend an invitation to join us whenever it is possible, and we promise, if given the opportunity, that we will try to show you real Deltasig hospitality.

ALPHA PI CHAPTER » » » « « « « « « INDIANA

By ARNOLD BERG, Correspondent.

Alpha Pi began the second semester of the school year with the initiation of thirteen pledges. The initiation ceremony was followed by a banquet at the Graham Hotel. The following men were initiated: Francis G. Cox, Harry H. Binkley, Frank R. Newell, Rodney E. Curry, Robert W. Everitt, Arnold Berg, Dwight K. Sadgebury, Edwin S. Anderson, Gillette A. Blank, Neil Young, S. Jack Heliker, Allan L. Norman. Brother Heliker is one of the outstanding initiates. He is a prominent figure in campus activities, being a member of Alpha Phi Omega, honorary scout leaders fraternity, and Scabard and Blade. He has recently been chosen for the position of cadet lieutenant-colonel of the R. O. T. C. unit at Indiana University.

The following officers were elected at the first business meeting of this semester:

Head Master	John Day
Chancellor	Eugene Denham
Scribe	Frank Forkner
Treasurer	James Holtzapple
Senior Warden	Paul Griffis
Junior Warden	Frank Ballman
Senior Guide	William Hefly
Junior Guide	Miles Manwaring
Historian	S. J. Heliker

Plans are being made for an all-commerce dinner to be sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi. A committee has been selected to secure the presence of a speaker nationally prominent in our profession. We feel that such a speaker can give us that much desired information, "Which routes lead to success after leaving college?" All commerce students will be invited to be present at this dinner.

ALPHA RHO CHAPTER » » « « « « « COLORADO

By ROBERT W. REWICK, Correspondent.

With the mid-term examinations over, Alpha Rho can again breathe sighs of relief and start in on our second quarter activities.

We were recently visited by Brother Gig Wright, our Grand Secretary-Treasurer. Gig arrived in Boulder Thursday, January 22, in the late morning. The chapter was assembled and the message from our national office proved of helpful and informational nature to the chapter. The advice and suggestions were received with interest, and Alpha Rho can certainly improve its position not only in the eyes of the national officers, but also in our own internal organization and place on the campus. Following the meeting, a noon-day banquet was held at the Indian Village at which, of course, Gig was the guest of honor. Our other guests were Dean Frederic A. Bushee of the School of Business Administration; Dean Harry Carlson, dean of men; Kenneth Field, assistant professor of Economics; and Professor H. L. Marshall, of the School of Business Administration. Dean Bushee gave a very interesting talk on the future of the School of Business Administration; Dean Carlson spoke of the relationship of the school to the rest of the university; and then Gig gave an exceptionally interesting talk on Delta Sigma Pi, tracing the history and development of the fraternity, pointing out recent tendencies in fraternity policies and programs, and the probable future development of college fraternities in general and Delta Sigma Pi in particular. Following the banquet, which we all thoroughly enjoyed, a meeting of the chapter officers with Brother Wright was held, at which time special chapter problems were discussed. All in all, the chapter certainly was glad to meet and visit with Gig; he was most welcome, and it is the wish of the chapter that he can visit us again in the near future, and this time stay longer than a few hours.

The program of Alpha Rho for the balance of this quarter has started out with two important appointments of committees. One committee has been appointed by Head Master McGinnis to sponsor relations with the School of Business Administration, to bring prominent business executives up to Boulder to speak to us; to further the expansion and development and progress plans of the school in general; to arrange and plan banquets to be held with the Boulder and Denver Chambers of Commerce. At such gatherings we will be able to meet outstanding business leaders of the region and to profit a great deal by the advice and suggestions that they may be able to give us. The second committee that was appointed is one to draw up a set of chapter by-laws to govern all sorts of chapter conduct and all exigencies that might arise. This is something that Alpha Rho has needed for a long time and such a set of rules should aid in the development and progress of the chapter materially.

In activities, Alpha Rho continues to be a leader on the campus. Dean Farrell is an outstanding member of the varsity gymnastic team; Louis Long is assisting in the Economics department, giving a few "quiz" sections in Economic History; Harold Mickey is the president of the School of Business Administration and also president of Pi Epsilon Pi; Morris Hecox is the editor of the Coloradoan (our year book), and is also a member of Sumalia, junior class honorary; Robert Mills is getting in shape for another big year on the varsity baseball team this spring; Hugh Thomas was recently initiated into Sumalia, as also was Jim Cottrell, who also is the associate editor of the Coloradoan, and a member of Mu Sigma Chi, the new band fraternity on the campus; George Brown is expected to be quite a valuable member of the varsity golf team this spring; Gerald Hart is assisting in the production and presentation of the annual musical comedy show, "A Lien on Love," which will be given soon, and Brother Rewick is the manager of the Silver and Gold, Sumalia member and president of Mu Sigma Chi. All in all, Alpha Rho has more than its share of activities on the campus, the fraternity is well known and well represented in every line of activity.

In conclusion, Alpha Rho wishes to express its hope that every chapter will gain its high hopes during the year if not to go far beyond their expectations. We also wish to invite every brother to visit us during this year in hopes of firmly uniting the ties of Delta Sigma Pi. Whenever you are around Boulder, don't fail to drop up here and see us; you certainly will be more than welcome, and we will be glad to show you the "sights" of the big town.

ALPHA SIGMA CHAPTER » »

« « « « « « ALABAMA

By G. P. ATKINS, Scribe.

Alpha Sigma is looking forward with anticipation to the initiation of nine neophytes on February 28, which will be followed by our annual banquet, honoring our newly initiated members. These neophytes have promise of becoming worthy members of Delta Sigma Pi, as they constitute some of the most outstanding students of the School of Commerce and Business Administration.

Alpha Sigma is very much interested in the installation of a chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma on the campus, which will take place in the very near future. Among the charter members of Beta Gamma Sigma on this campus are included the following members of Alpha Sigma: George Law, W. B. Howard, James J. Campbell, J. W. Donahoo.

At a recent meeting, Alpha Sigma went on record to assist in the radio publicity of the centennial celebration of the University of Alabama. This celebration is to take place on May 10-12, and is to be one of the most elaborate events that has ever occurred at the university. Alpha Sigma is honored by being one of the few organizations to be selected to take part in the radio publicity of the centennial.

Alpha Sigma wishes continued progress and success to all chapters.

ALPHA TAU CHAPTER » »

« « « « « « MERCER

By GEORGE W. POTTS, Correspondent.

Although small in number, Alpha Tau Chapter was off to a good start this year and much progress has been accomplished. After looking back over the previous records we find the chapter holding its own despite the dropping off in the student body, and in many ways we have gained.

Nine active members are taking a part, the same as there were this time last year but the greatest gain is in the number of pledges. We now have ten compared to six in 1930. Another similarity of importance that the chapter is proud of, and that was when the term scholarship marks were averaged up, the Delta Sigma Pi chapter was leading the campus as it did during the past year.

The chapter during the term sent out cards to all former members of the chapter to get a line on what they were doing and this met with good results, as a large percent of the cards were returned with full information. Some of the brothers out in the business world are: Frank M. Gormly, 1926, now with the Hercules Powder company, Brunswick, Ga.; Sidney B. Wellons, 1927, is now employed by the Statistical Department of Hanover Bank and Trust Co., New York; R. L. Gunnells, 1928, is a travelling auditor for the Coca Cola Co.; Edwin M. Turlington, 1928, is an accountant for Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., Atlanta, Ga.; Lee Miller, 1929, bookkeeper and cashier for the Power Oil Co., Macon, Ga.

On February 10 the chapter held a luncheon in their reading room in the Commerce building, inviting out several of the alumni brothers here in Macon and the pictures of the Tenth Grand Chapter Congress held last summer in Detroit were shown. The night was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

At the last meeting in January a committee was appointed to arrange for the annual smoker to be held in February. This is one of the biggest events of the present term for Delta Sigma Pi boys. It will be held in the university cafeteria, with all commerce students being invited.

New officers were also elected for this term. They are:

Head Master . . . Fred Carson
Senior Warden . . Thomas McKoy
Junior Warden . . J. T. Scruggs
Treasurer . . . Houser Gilbert
Scribe Joe Patrick
Chancellor . . . Ashton Almand
Senior Guide . . . Cooper Salter
Historian George Potts
Master of Ceremonies

R. W. Coursey
Correspondent . . . George Potts

The members of Alpha Tau wish to send their best wishes for a successful year to the brothers and chapters of Delta Sigma Pi.

ALPHA UPSILON CHAPTER »

« « « « « « « « MIAMI

By HOWARD C. HIGGINS, Correspondent.

Alpha Upsilon Chapter, Miami University, announces the pledging of thirteen upper-class students, to be initiated this spring.

Professor Charles Sandage, Iota, received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Iowa at the February Convocation. The degree was awarded for studies in Economics and Business. Brother Sandage wrote his thesis on Motor Vehicle Taxation. He has been working on motor vehicle taxation for the last three years. He had a bulletin on this subject published in 1928 by The Bureau of Business Research. He had an article published in 1929 entitled, "The Question of Motor Vehicle Subsidy." Brother Sandage was asked to give advice to the Special Motor Tax Commission of North Carolina and New York in regard to a possible revision of motor tax laws. The National Taxation Association has also asked him to assist them in this subject.

Dr. Edwin S. Todd, our chapter adviser, has been writing a series of articles on Ohio taxation problems for a syndicate of newspapers in this state. Brother Todd has been appointed chapter adviser of the Syndic, a freshman honorary business organization.

Professor J. B. Dennison has a leave of absence for this semester. Brother Dennison is a statistical expert and is working for the Bureau of Municipal Research of Cincinnati.

Kenneth Yost, a senior in the School of Business Administration, has been granted a patent on his Yost-type Helicopter. With the granting of this patent to Brother Yost another new phase of aviation has been perfected. This new invention will enable a plane to rise and descend in vertical flight, thus eliminating the need for a large landing field.

Joseph Siebert, our social chairman and president of the junior class, made straight A's again this semester.

Robert Goacher, our Head Master, and Joe Bierry attended the annual dinner-dance given in Cincinnati February 7 by Alpha Theta Chapter. Both brothers report a very pleasant evening.

ALPHA PHI CHAPTER » » « « « « « MISSISSIPPI

By HORACE BROWN JR., Correspondent.

If this letter could have been written a one week later it would have been my honor and pleasure to announce the initiation of twelve new men who are in every respect qualified to be true and loyal Deltasigs. However, I am writing a week ahead of time and must tell what is going to be and not what has happened.

On the night of the 25th twelve very promising neophytes are going to be put through the famous and well-known routine of "horse-play." It is unnecessary to say that we will do our duty on that night and that we will duly prepare the neophytes for what is to come the following night.

On the night of the 26th these twelve men will be handled in an entirely different way and after all due ceremony will be sworn into the bonds of brotherhood. Following initiation a banquet will be given in honor of the new men.

While Alpha Phi has through the masterly and untiring efforts of several of its lawyer members successfully refrained from bankruptcy, it has undoubtedly been seriously crippled and handicapped by the enormous and untold amount that it lost in the two bank failures that occurred in this city. While as yet the auditors have not announced the exact amount that we lost it has been rumored around the campus that it was an enormous fortune. However, as Alpha Phi always meets its problems we have risen to the call for help and met this emergency. Such financiers as Smallwood, Moss, and others took the matter in hand and now we have successfully escaped liquidation, and even gone so far as to start another account in a new bank which will soon rival our former accounts.

Alpha Phi is planning great things for the coming months of this year. If our plans materialize we will advance far into the field of work for which we are intended. We will make no prophecies but will tell you more about it next time.

ALPHA CHI CHAPTER » » « « « « « WASHINGTON

By W. E. HORN, Scribe.

Alpha Chi has added seven new brothers to its membership since the last semester.

The seven initiated had been held over from last semester. Alpha Chi looks forward to initiating their eleven remaining pledges in May. With such initiations, our chapter should get away with a bang.

In our social calendar, we have two dances scheduled for the months of March and April. The success of the past dances is the cause for monthly dances. Hence, we will make an attempt at regular monthly dances.

Our smokers in the past months have met with much approval. It has been a get-together of alumni and active members, along with some interesting lectures by a prominent business man in the city.

Election of new officers is not very distant, and even at this time, some of the prospects are being closely observed.

Alpha Chi will lose some ten or twelve men through graduation in June and it is with regret that we look toward that day.

All in all, Alpha Chi closes with its usual greetings to the brother chapters.

ALPHA PSI CHAPTER » » « « « « « CHICAGO

By JOSEPH F. HURT, Correspondent.

Alpha Psi started activities in the new quarter with a bang, for the boys were hardly through exchanging greetings after the Christmas vacation, when an initiation, followed by the traditional Initiation Banquet, loomed up on Friday, January 9. The initiation took place at the home of Max Mauermann, where the lowly neophytes went through the usual procedure to the edification of the brethren. Following the ritual, the boys hurried and scurried to various parts of the city for their dates, for that evening was the time, and the Southmoor Hotel was the place of the initiation dinner-dance. The new brethren, in whose honor the event was held, are as follows: Joe Kousser, Henry Mashal, Joe Sherry, Fred Krimming, and Vince Hrvat.

After a short breathing spell, activities continued in full speed with the first bi-weekly luncheon of the new quarter, held at the Plaisance on January 23. A popular member of our esteemed faculty, Professor J. Finley Christ, was the speaker at this event.

Quickening our gait, the social program gathering momentum as we went along, we reached the next event, which was a rush smoker at the Reynolds Club on January 27, followed on February 6 by the second luncheon of the quarter at the usual place, the Plaisance Hotel. At the latter event, Mr. Peterson, head of the trust department at the Hyde Park National Bank, gave an interesting talk on trusts, assisted by one of his associates.

Another rush smoker was held at the Reynolds Club on Tuesday, February 10, at which we were glad to see several of our 'good ol' alumni.' The affair was quite a success as Brother Lay can well attest.

The boys are all pepped up in anticipation of our next event, the informal dance on Friday, February 27, at the Canton Tea Gardens, where Louis Panico and his orchestra holds sway. Perhaps some of the boys are without a date, but there need be no fear, for Bob McKittrick, our star blind-date maker, is always on the job.

On Tuesday, February 17 the chapter was honored by the presence of Gig Wright at its meeting.

Alpha Psi is glad to announce that at an election held last January, Walter Lay was elected president, and Fermino Zancanaro secretary-treasurer, of the C. & A. Council, the student governing body of the School of Commerce. We know that under the regime of Brother Lay the accomplishments of the Council will be many. Success to you, Wally.

ALPHA OMEGA CHAPTER »

« « « « « « DEPAUL

By W. DONALD ECK, Correspondent.

Following the new year came the closing of the semester, coming as always with the confusion of examinations. However, the new semester came off with a good start, save that three of the brothers dropped from school.

Alpha Omega held the first initiation of the year on February 20 and 21. Hell night was on Friday evening and on Saturday the formal initiation was held at the Congress Hotel.

The initiation brings six new brothers into the ranks of Delta Sigma Pi. The new brothers are: Joseph Keeney, Charles Meier, Joseph Mitorey, John Waugh, Edward Carmody, and Howard Sullivan.

Plans are rapidly nearing completion for the early spring formal dinner dance. It is to be an important Deltasig function inasmuch as the four chapters in the Chicago district will be represented. Present indications point to the dinner being held Saturday evening, April 18 in the Stevens Hotel.

Our treasurer, Walter Weiss, did not return to school for the second semester. To replace Walt we elected Eugene Sugrue.

Alpha Omega intends to start shortly on an extensive program of rushing to bring the active chapter up to a number that will not greatly be affected by graduation.

BETA GAMMA CHAPTER » »

By J. SAM TAYLOR, Scribe.

Beta Gamma is proud to announce the return of John J. Gee to the University of South Carolina this semester. Brother Gee is a charter mmeber of Beta Gamma Chapter and always took much interest in the welfare of Delta Sigma Pi.

Brother Sikes of Beta Gamma spent several days in Atlanta recently where he met several Deltasig brothers. He reports a very pleasant trip and has brought some new ideas home with him which we hope to use to great advantage in our own chapter.

The following Beta Gamma men either completed or almost completed their four year's work in three and a half years: V.

M. Williamson, Roy Garrett, W. C. Neeley, and E. K. Meeks. But we are glad to say that these men are back with us this semester, either completing their regular courses or doing this and taking some graduate work, too.

We regret the fact that several Beta Gamma men have been the victims of an influenza epidemic recently, thus slowing up our program of work for this semester thus far. But now that this is about over and we have completed our registration for the new semester's work, we hope to get in full swing again and do some constructive work in Delta Sigma Pi.

BETA EPSILON CHAPTER » « « « « « OKLAHOMA

By T. KENNETH O'BAR, Correspondent.

The chapter has been rather busy for the past few weeks with plans and preparations for Oklahoma University's first College of Business Administration Day. It is hoped that this day will be one of the gala affairs of the year and as the chapter suggested the original idea we are doing our best to put it over. This day will be February 20, 1931. The program will consist of speeches in the afternoon, a dinner in the evening, and a dance to close the day. Brother Wood has charge of the publicity and sale of the tickets for the dinner and dance.

Due to the fact that Brother Wardner had so many things on his hands that he felt that he could not devote as much time to the chapter as he thought a Head Master should, he resigned from the office. Frank P. Tansel was elected to fill the vacancy left by Brother Wardner and is the present Head Master of Beta Epsilon. Ed Wardner and Jack Foster have had parts in recent Playhouse productions, Foster appearing in "The Gardener's Dog" and Wardner in "The Swan."

The beginning of the second semester finds us on the verge of what we hope to make a very successful semester. We now have seventeen men in the house, and six new pledges. We hope to increase this number to fifteen before initiation which will be held later in the spring.

The chapter lost two men at the end of the first semester, Brother Bevins by graduation, and Brother Towne, who was unable to return to school due to injuries received in an automobile accident during Thanksgiving vacation. Ray Awtrey, who was not in school the first semester, returned the second semester. He was recently elected to the office of Master of Ceremonies.

We feel that the chapter has made commendable progress in the past year, and hope to make this year even better than last. Two initiations have been scheduled for the rest of this year with a minimum of fifteen initiates, several smokers, and other events, the program of which follows:

- February 20, Commerce Day.
- February 26, Smoker.
- March 26, Smoker.
- April 16, Initiation.
- April 30, Election of Officers.
- May 14, Joint meeting of Professional Fraternities.
- May 21, Initiation.

We again remind you that our latching string is always out to all Deltasigs and ask you to make our house your own when in Oklahoma.

BETA ETA CHAPTER » » » « « « « « FLORIDA

By CARL D. KING, Scribe.

Beta Eta is still taking the lead of things among the professional fraternities down here at Florida. Our chapter enjoys the distinction of being the first professional fraternity on the campus to start a basketball team. Due to the fact that there are but a few independent teams on the campus we are scheduling games with the neighboring high schools. However, with our lead we feel that other teams will spring up by next season. Lyle Hiatt deserves much praise for the work he has done in organizing the team. It not only gives us some clean wholesome recreation, but it brings the brothers together in closer fellowship with one another. The team looks plenty snappy in its new uniforms of purple trunks and gold colored shirts with the letters $\Delta \Sigma \Pi$ on the back. The fraternity is getting some good publicity and the other students know that we are awake.

Nor have we neglected the professional side of our program. Our banquet was a great success. The Dean of the college and other prominent men have addressed the chapter on topics pertaining to business as a profession. We are planning a smoker and a dance in the near future. The initiation of new men and the activities that follow will climax our program for the year.

With the election of officers on the docket for our next meeting we are beginning to wonder who they will be. Nobody has gone so far as to make any predictions yet, however. Head Master James is to be commended for the way he has conducted our affairs this year. If we can but get another leader as good and conscientious as he has been there'll be no limit to our future progress.

The chapter will lose thirteen men through graduation in June. Most of these men are charter members. So the old order changeth yielding place to the new. However, our new brothers are as enthusiastic as the older ones. They have the spirit of Delta Sigma Pi at heart, and we feel sure that our chapter will continue to grow under their influence.

BETA THETA CHAPTER » » « « « « « CREIGHTON

By RAYMOND F. FINNEGAN, Correspondent.

The second semester begins for Beta Theta Chapter with thirty active members, new officers, and bright prospects for increased activities and larger membership.

Floyd E. Walsh, dean of the College of Commerce, was re-elected chapter adviser.

The work of Brother Pellegrin and the other senior officers of this chapter has been untiring and unselfish during their period of office. Beta Theta feels that a great measure of gratitude is due them for their splendid work. We have confidence that under the leadership of the new officers, Beta Theta will continue to prosper and greater success and activity will be in store.

Beta Theta Chapter honored the visit of Grand Secretary Wright with an alumni luncheon at the Hotel Paxton January 20 and a chapter banquet of alumni and actives at the Knights of Columbus club the same night.

For the second monthly vocational night, we secured H. Malcolm Baldrige, Omaha attorney and congressman-elect, to speak. His subject was "The Attitude of the College Student toward Business." We plan to continue these vocational nights every month by securing prominent business men of the city to address the chapter on various phases of business and professional life. The freshman class of the College of Commerce were guests at the last vocational night.

Beta Theta Chapter was a patron to the Agnew Student Loan Fund which was begun this year at Creighton for the purpose of establishing a fund for needy students.

Raymond Finnegan was elected editor-in-chief of The Creightonian, official weekly newspaper of the university. He succeeds Brother Pellegrin in this position. Edwin Van Ackeren and Harry Johnson were appointed city editor and sports editor of the paper respectively.

Beta Theta's team in the intra-fraternity league shows promise of being a strong contender for the cup.

A smoker for prospective pledges will be held soon and plans are being made for a party to be held early in the spring. We plan to increase our membership considerably during the second semester.

Delta Sigma Pi and all other fraternities at Creighton lost a good friend when the Rev. William H. Agnew, S.J., president of the university, died February 13. During his presidency of Creighton, Father Agnew always took an active interest in fraternity life.

BETA IOTA CHAPTER » » « « « « « BAYLOR

By DOWDEN R. DILLEHAY, Correspondent.

Members of Beta Iota returned after the holidays ready to get back to their college activities.

Meetings have been well attended each Monday night. Every other Monday night, some experienced business man has been invited to speak and the subjects have all been interesting. The other meeting nights are reserved for business meetings.

Six men have been pledged this term. They are all fine fellows and should make good active members.

On January 30 a weiner roast was given at Cameron park. The weather was ideal. The supper was well attended and all the pledges were there and everyone enjoyed it very much.

The formal initiation of the pledges will be held February 28. They will be given a banquet that night at Karem Temple, the local headquarters of the Shriners. An examination will be given to the pledges on Monday night, February 16, and from then until initiation there will be many interesting things found for the pledges to do.

We regret very much that Head Master E. Cowden Henry finishes at the end of this term on February 6. Brother Henry has done very much for Beta Iota. He has been very active in his work and has been loyal in his responsible position. Beta Iota wishes him success in all of his undertakings.

Lawrence McMillan finishes this term also. He has been an active member and we wish him success.

Although Beta Iota is just two months old, we feel that we have made much progress and plan much constructive work in the future.

BETA KAPPA CHAPTER » » « « « « « « « « TEXAS

By WILLIAM E. DOZIER, Correspondent.

Now that the first semester exams are over the members of Beta Kappa can once more devote their entire time to the welfare of Delta Sigma Pi. Every member came through with flying colors and with grades that are a credit to themselves and to the fraternity.

A most enjoyable and successful smoker was held on Monday, February 16, at the Men's Faculty Club, at which many of the more outstanding students in the School of Business Administration took advantage of Beta Kappa's hospitality. Professor E. G. Smith, associate professor of Marketing, rendered vocal selections, accompanied at the piano by his wife. William P. Boyd, adjunct professor of Business Administration, and W. Howard Hoffman also rendered musical selections.

Everyone certainly did enjoy themselves and as a result of this smoker and the one that is to be held about a month and a half later, Beta Kappa intends to increase its roll by around twenty new members. A large number of our actives plan to take their degrees this June, but Beta Kappa has its eye on several sophomores and juniors that bid fair to be able to carry on.

Beta Kappa plans to hold professional meetings every two weeks, at which times prominent local and state business men will address the fraternity. We are particularly fortunate in having the business men in town genuinely interested in our welfare and as a consequence can expect full cooperation from them.

Delta Sigma Pi is amply represented on the Students' Assembly by W. Howard Hoffman, who was elected from the School of Business Administration at large. Delta Sigma Pi and the School of Business Administration as a whole were very fortunate in being able to hear William Clayton of the famous cotton firm of Anderson and Clayton deliver his address on the "World Economic Tangle" on Saturday, February 14.

In saying adios, Beta Kappa wishes to extend best wishes to all other chapters and to express the hope that when any of you are traveling in the Southwest you will drop off at Austin to visit us.

Beta Lambda Chapter Installed March 21, 1931

The Beta Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi was installed at Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Department of Business Administration, Auburn, Alabama, on Saturday, March 21, 1931, this issue going to press too early to include article covering same, which will be reported at length in the May issue.
